Jazz festival to help fund disease research

Some proceeds from the festival will be donated to the Fanconi Anemia Research Fund

By Nicole Krueger
Entertainment Editor

Jazz lovers can celebrate the 1920s, listen to live jazz and help find a cure for a fatal genetic disorder all in one weekend.

An all-event badge to the All Oregon Dixieland Jazz Festival includes admission to each festival event Jan. 10-12 as well as a $20 donation to the Fanconi Anemia Research Fund (FARF).

The All-Oregon Dixieland Jazz Festival, which will take place at the Valley River Inn, will feature live traditional jazz and swing performed by Big Tiny Little Jazz Band, 10th Avenue Jazz Band, Journeys End Jazz Band, Oregon Jazz Band and Pussyfoot Stompers. Festival-goers can either dance or sit back and listen to the music.

Festival hours are 5-11 p.m. Jan. 10, 11 a.m.-11 p.m. Jan. 11 and 11 a.m.-4 p.m. Jan. 12. Admission badges can be purchased separately for each day, and all-event badges, which offer "come and go" admission to all festival activities, are available for $40.

All-event badge holders are also invited to attend the Basin Street Bash, a party dedicated to FARF featuring the Big Tiny Little Jazz Band. The party will occur Jan. 11 from 7:30 to 11:30 p.m. in the Willamette Room. Roaring '20s attire is encouraged.

Fifty percent of the proceeds from each all-event badge will be donated to FARF, a nonprofit Eugene group that was founded by Dave and Lynn Frohnmayer.

The group raises funds to educate and support families affected by fanconi anemia, a genetic disorder that usually results in bone marrow failure and leukemia.

FARF also funds research for treatments and a cure for the disease.

Badges for the All Oregon Dixieland Jazz Festival can be purchased by sending check or credit card information to The Box Office, 1380 Commercial, Coos Bay, OR 97420, or by calling 1(800)676-7563 or (541)269-2720.

The Valley River Inn is located at 1000 Valley River Way. For more information about the festival, call (541)888-4386.
