

HANA'S restaurant

Korean & Japanese Cuisine

Low Fat
Low Calories
Brown Rice Available.

1219 Alder St.
Across the Street from Sacred Heart Hospital

More than 15
New Dishes!
TRY ONE TODAY!

50¢ OFF ALL DISHES OVER $3.75*
*Expires Jan 26, 1997

Free drink with any meal over $3.50

UO FACULTY & STAFF

Did You Know...

By participating in the pre-tax retirement savings plan, (403b), you can make 15-37% on your contributions through tax savings.

Carter & Carter
FINANCIAL

"Your Financial Partners"

Committed to the University Community
541/683-2900

Email: invest@carterandcarter.com

Access our Schedule of Seminars:
<http://www.rjf.com/sems.htm>

Need to get rid of that old computer?
Get results with Oregon Daily Emerald Classifieds!
Call 346-4343!

Hockey splits Stanford series

■ CLUB SPORTS: Oregon pounds the Cardinal 6-3 Friday, but falls 4-3 Saturday in intense game

By Alex Pond
Freelance Sports Reporter

Stanford scored with just one minute, 14 seconds remaining in the game to defeat the Oregon Club hockey team 4-3 Saturday at Lane County Ice Arena. With the win, the Cardinal avoided the weekend sweep by the Ducks, who beat Stanford 6-3 Friday night in the first of two intense Pacific-8 hockey league games over the weekend.

Saturday's game was every bit as close as the final score indicated. Stanford struck first, scoring just 41 seconds into the game when Tom Terbell tapped the puck behind Oregon goaltender Keith Barbato. Barbato did not appear to see the puck as it slowly rolled over the goal line.

The Ducks tied the game a little more than a minute later when Ezra Louthis received the puck from Ryan Trout and slapped it through two Stanford defenders and past the goalie, finding the back of the net.

The game remained tied until the Cardinal scored with 11:54 left in the period to take a 2-1 lead. A power-play goal with 9:45 remaining gave the Cardinal a 3-1 lead, which is where it seemed the period would end.

That was until Oregon's Dan Helm caught the Stanford goalie off-balance with seven seconds left and slapped the puck into the net, closing the gap to 3-2 heading into the second period.

The second period was a defensive struggle that featured some spectacular saves by each goalie. Oregon would break through, however, in the period when Chris Geib scored off of assists from Helm and Chris Eberle.

That set the stage for a dramatic third period. Each team had its chances to score early but couldn't capitalize, thanks in part to great defensive efforts and stingy goalies.

Oregon's best opportunity to score came with 3:30 left when they had a power play. However, Stanford successfully killed it and the game seemed headed into overtime.

But the Cardinal broke loose on a two-on-one breakaway, beat the Oregon defense and slapped the puck past Barbato to take the victory.

"The last goal was a defensive breakdown," Barbato said. "The defender took the shooter when he was supposed to take the passer and the Stanford [player] just made a great pass across the crease, and I wasn't able to get there fast enough. I wish I could have."

Although the loss was disappointing for the Ducks, it should not overshadow an outstanding effort in Friday's victory.

After falling behind by a goal early, the Ducks woke up with 6:12 remaining in the first period. For the next minute and 32 seconds, they exploded for three goals and the rout was on. Louthis scored first, followed by Eberle and Sean Schoppe.

Oregon scored three more times in the second period, getting goals from Flint Duongchak, Brendan Malia and Schoppe.

The Cardinal added a couple of meaningless goals late in the game to round out the scoring.

While the Ducks played well collectively, Barbato was outstanding throughout the game, including a number of spectacular saves of what seemed to be sure goals by the Cardinal.

But Barbato wouldn't take any credit for the victory, giving praise instead to his teammates.

"The offense and defense were incredible tonight," he said. "They cleared out in front and I was able to see the puck."

"They were flying at the ice tonight, which is amazing for me. I'm just in awe right now."

The Ducks, now 12-5-1 on the season and 5-5-1 in the Pac-8, will travel to Seattle this weekend for a pair of games against Washington.

YOU CAN READ THE EMERALD FROM ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD.

o.d.e. on the world wide web: <http://darkwing.uoregon.edu/~ode>

IT'S JUST LIKE REALLY BEING HERE, BUT WITHOUT ALL THE RAIN.

It's the music!

Our Duck Stop Turns 2!

espresso bar

It's the coffee!

It's the people!

10% Book Discount

- How convenient convenient? VERY!
- FAST...defined!
- Local? Local!! Can coffee bucks help buy books? Oh, yeah!
- WE CARE! WE CARE! WE CARE!
- Word-on-the-coffee-street? A-GREAT-DEAL!

It's me!

Customer of the Week

It could be you. Let us take your picture for our drawing. (Even if you drink tea.)

Satiations Sisters® Vegan Treats

Oregon Chai®

Pipin' Hot® Pastries

CHAI Soy Milk

It's all the local favorites!

Coffee Happiness Guaranteed!

we proudly serve starbuck's® locally ground coffee!