TRIVIA QUESTION ANSWER

Question: The first full-length motion picture produced by students was filmed here at the U of O, by U of O students. What is the name of the film, and when was it made?

Answer: The film is called "Ed's Co-ed". It's a silent film about the spirit, traditions and romance of campus life. It was filmed in 1928. Thanks to retired UO Archivist Keith Richards, "Ed's Co-ed" was made available on video in 1990. It can be purchased through the UO Archives, or it can be rented at some local video stores. The video includes 1990 footage to illustrate how the campus had changed in the 62 years since the film was made.

Congratulations to: KEITH DENNIS Tuesday's trivia winner!
