Softball splits over weekend

■ SOFTBALL: Ducks pick up their first two league victories of the season

By Ryan Halvorsen
Sports Reporter

The Oregon softball team picked up its first two league wins of the season over the weekend splitting double-headers with both California and Stanford.

In the first game against Stanford Sunday the Cardinals broke a 1-1 tie in the seventh inning for a 2-1 victory. The second game proved to be just a close as it went into extra innings tied at two. The Ducks came away with the win with a run in the 10th inning and Stanford couldn't find an answer.

Angie LeRoy, Melisa Lemke and Allison Nihei each went 2-5 with one RBI in the second game and LeRoy scored two of the Duck's three runs. Jenni Cook picked up both the win and the loss for the Ducks on the mound.

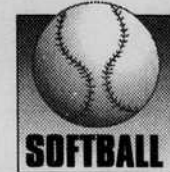

Saturday the Ducks picked up their first conference win of the season, beating 20th ranked California 13-8 in the second game of a doubleheader in Berkeley. The Bears took the first game 4-0, but Oregon came out hot in the second game to come away with the split.

Heather Holte came out swinging in the second game, belting a two-run home-run in the first inning to put Oregon ahead 2-0, but the lead wouldn't last long for the Ducks. California came back to score two runs in the second and one in the third to take a 3-2.

Oregon broke the game open in the fourth, scoring two runs before Jennifer Apfelbaum knocked a grand-slam in her only at bat of the game to give the Ducks an 8-3 lead, but once again the Bears came roaring back with five runs in the bottom of the fourth to tie the game at eight.

Cook came up with what was to be the game winning RBIs in the fifth inning, blasting a two-run homer and Jill Robinson brought in two more runs with a double in the sixth inning for the icing on the cake. Cook moved to the mound in the third inning for the Ducks, replacing Petrina Martinez, and gave up only one hit and one run the rest of the way to take the win.

UO men, women lose at San Diego

■ TENNIS: Andrea Petrovic and Shanelle Kaneshiro had the Ducks' only two wins in women's play

By Ben Kwasney and Alex Pond
Sports Reporters

The Oregon women's tennis team (7-8 overall, 2-5 Pacific-10 conference) dropped a match 7-2 to No. 38 San Diego at San Diego on Saturday, while the men lost 6-1 to the Toreros on Sunday.

On the women's side, Oregon's two wins came from Andrea Petrovic, who defeated Julie Baird in straight sets, and Shanelle Kaneshiro, who beat Steffi Hesse in three sets.

"It was a tough loss," said head coach Jack Griffin. "I think we had a really good opportunity to beat a team ranked ahead of us, but we didn't pull out the close matches in the places we needed to."

The Ducks went into the match as the No. 51 team. Oregon's 34th-ranked doubles team of Kaneshiro and Allison Sosnow could not pick up a win, as they lost to San Diego's Zuzana Lesenarova and Brigid Joyce 6-8.

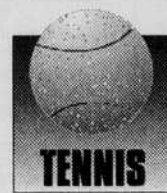

Next up for the Ducks will be the final home contest of the season, an April 11 meeting against Washington at the Eugene Swim and Tennis Club.

On the men's side, freshman Guillermo Carter picked up Oregon's lone victory, defeating Rodolfo Rodriguez when Rodriguez was forced to retire in the second set. Carter, playing in the No. 3 position, won the first set 6-4 and is now 3-3 in singles play.

Oregon's tandem of freshman Cedric Van Haver and sophomore Carlos Navarro defeated J.P. LaBarrie and Justin Schmidt 8-4 to pick up the Ducks' only victory in doubles play.

The loss dropped Oregon's record to 5-13 on the season. The road trip will continue today for the men when the Ducks take on No. 49 UC Irvine.
