

CAMPUS VIEW

WEDNESDAY'S TOPIC: Crime & Safety

POLICE BEAT

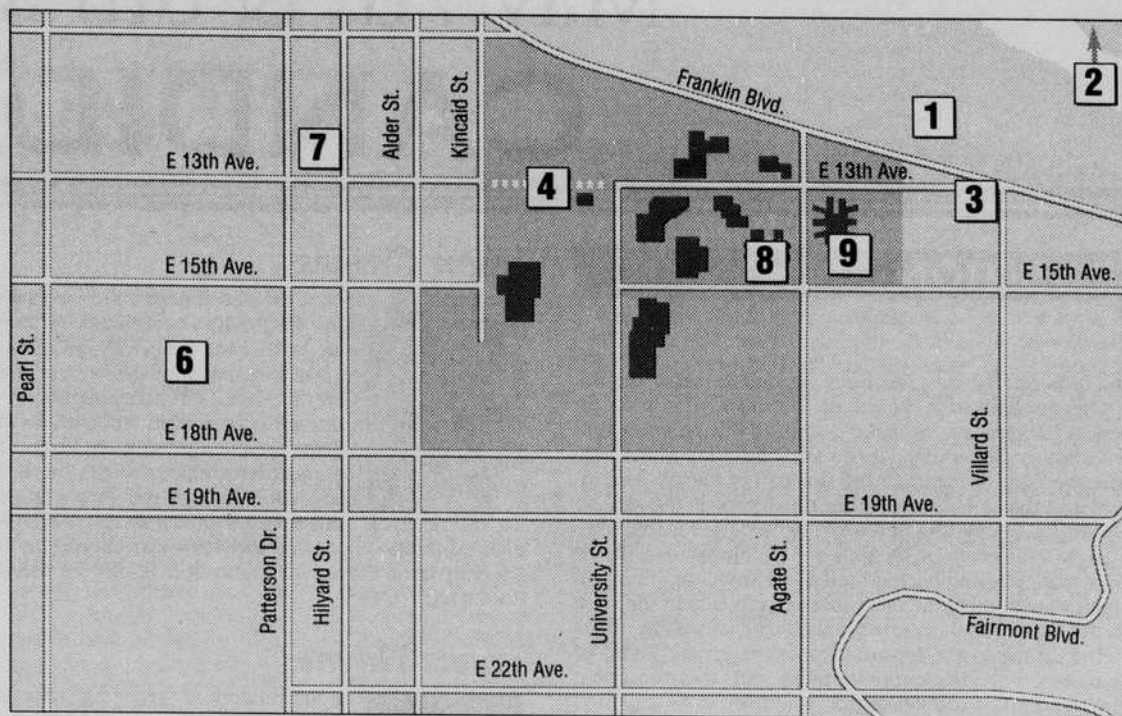

Man stabbed in fight

1 A man was stabbed in the abdomen Friday just before 6:15 p.m. in Scobert Park and is currently listed in critical condition at Sacred Heart Medical Center. According to witnesses, two groups of people engaged in an argument and exchanged insults. One subject then picked up a tree branch and struck Robert Larry Reznak, 40, and William Monroe Lewis, 41, both on the head. A fight broke out between the two men and three juveniles, two males and one female, and Reznak was stabbed. One of the males and the female juvenile have been questioned by police, but the third suspect has not been located.

Police radio stolen

2 A Eugene resident was charged with theft by extortion and burglary on April 30 at 11:58 a.m. According to police, the suspect stole a police radio from an office in Autzen Stadium and began speaking into the radio on an emergency channel. Another resident was charged with theft by extortion because of his participation in the incident. Police reports stated that the suspects were making comments such as: "Hello, hello, there is a man running on the roof of Autzen. He told us there's a bomb on the football field. Get a million dollars."

Sgt. Poppe, of the Eugene police department, alerted officers to the delinquent speaking on the police channel and they responded to Autzen to investigate. One of the individuals was approached because he was holding a cup full of rubber bands that was also believed to have been stolen from the office. After an investigation, the two admitted to the accusations and were charged.

Two men steal beer

3 A University student was charged with second-degree theft and minor in possession at 3 a.m. on April 30 when he walked into the 7-11 on 1898 Franklin Blvd. and stole a four pack of beer. According to police reports, the suspect walked into the store and approached the front counter with a four-pack of Coors beer. When the clerk told him it was after the legal time to purchase alcohol, the suspect ran out the door and left the scene in a car that another person was driving. Officers located the car with the help of the clerk's description. The owner of the vehicle was approached by officers and after an investigation, they learned he was the driver and his friend was the one who stole the beer. They admitted to police that it was their intention to steal the beer before they entered the store. The driver was charged with third-degree theft and possession of less than an ounce of marijuana after officers found marijuana and related paraphernalia at his residence.

Faire-goer harassed

4 During the ASUO Street Faire that took place on the closed portion of 13th Avenue last week, a transient was charged with harassment when, according to police reports, he pointed his video camera under the skirt of a woman walking down the street. Around 5:30 p.m. on May 2, the victim alerted OPS that she was being harassed by a man with a camera. When officers arrived, witnesses and the victim helped them locate the suspect who admitted that he had been pointing his camera under the victim's dress. He told police that the recorder was not on, but he was using the camera to look through the view screen. The suspect was charged and released.

Police find marijuana

5 A 21-year-old transient was charged with possession of less than an ounce of marijuana at 4:51 p.m. on May 2 when he was approached by officers regarding a criminal mischief report. It was unclear whether the suspect had any involvement in criminal mischief, but after a routine search officers found what they believed to be marijuana in his possession. He was charged, taken down for fingerprints and released.

Officer cites for noise

6 A University student was cited for prohibited noise on May 5 at 12:35 a.m. at 737 E. 16th Ave. when residents in his apartment complex complained about continual noise disturbances coming from his apartment. According to reports, a Eugene police officer went to his room to investigate and could hear music coming from his room at high volumes. After knocking at the suspect's door with no response, the officer entered the room and called out his presence. The suspect was charged and released.

Subway vandalized

7 The Subway at 1304 Hilyard St. reported to police that on April 22 at approximately 3:30 a.m. an unknown individual vandalized their front glass door. The owner told police that the video camera in his store recorded the individual who rode up on his bike and scratch letters into the glass, but he didn't recognize him. The tapes were turned over to police and an investigation is underway.

Housing reports theft

8 Several items were reported stolen from different University housing facilities recently. A vacuum cleaner and a dresser were stolen from the Walton complex sometime during Spring term. They were noticed missing on April 29. The total value of the items was approximately $439. A couch was also stolen from Spiller dorm sometime between April 15 and 16. It was worth about $895, and no information about the suspect is known at this time. The University Inn also had a couch stolen from its first floor lounge between April 25 and 28. The couch is worth approximately $910 and no suspect information is known.

Unlocked bike stolen

9 A Diamond back bike was stolen between April 30 and May 1 from the area near Pizano's pizza. The student told police she left it there unlocked and when she returned it was gone. The bike was worth an estimated $350.

—compiled by Ryan Maughn

"Mother's Favorite Things"

Send her Flowers for Mother's Day May 5-10

- Choose from a large selection
- We guarantee she will love them
- 24 hour ordering service
- Delivery worldwide

CALL TODAY!

Eugene's Flower Home
THE UNIVERSITY FLORIST
610 E. 13th at Patterson • 485-3655
University of Oregon Alums

Trudi Alexy
author of
"The Mezuzah in the Madonna's Foot"
Marranos
and
Other Secret Jews: A Woman Discovers
Her Spiritual Heritage

Trudi Alexy will give a lecture on Spain's role saving Jews during the Holocaust.

TONIGHT 7:30 p.m.
177 Lawrence

Contact the Jewish Student Union
346-4366 for more information.

Mus Evenings

Please join us for a lecture on the Shanghai School of Painting: Chinese Painting of the Late-19th and 20th Centuries by:

Kui-Yi Shen, Visiting Professor, Art History

5:00-8:00 P.M.
May 7
Lecture at 6:00 P.M.

Free

University of Oregon
Museum of Art

Art is Living

Supported in part by a grant from the Oregon Community Foundation

Check out Rhythm & Reviews in the Emerald every Friday for all the latest in local entertainment!