

Houston puts Seattle in 3-1 hole

The Associated Press

SEATTLE — Unless they stumble in Houston, the Rockets are done playing in Seattle.

The Rockets put themselves in position to wrap up their Western Conference semifinal series at home with a 110-106 overtime victory over the SuperSonics on Sunday that gave them a 3-1 lead.

"We're looking forward to closing them out at home," Houston's Clyde Drexler said.

"We need to go home and take care of business," Charles Barkley of the Rockets said.

The Rockets can wrap up the series with a win in Game 5 in Houston on Tuesday night. Game 6, if necessary, would be in Seattle on Thursday night.

NEW YORK 77, MIAMI 73

Both offenses were ugly, both defenses were suffocating. And when Game 3 of the Miami-New York series came down to one final shot, it was appropriate that the biggest play of all was a blocked shot.

Patrick Ewing blocked Tim Haraway's three-point attempt with three seconds left Sunday to preserve the Knicks' 77-73 victory over the Heat. It gave New York a 2-1 advantage heading into Game 4 Monday night at Madison Square Garden.

The Knicks made only five field goals in the fourth quarter and none in the final 6:20, but they also held Miami to just two baskets over the final 12 minutes and zero points in the final 2:50.

CHICAGO 89, ATLANTA 80

Scottie Pippen and Michael Jordan were back in their familiar roles Sunday, leading the Chicago Bulls to an 89-80 victory over the Atlanta Hawks and firm control of the Eastern Conference semifinals.

Jordan scored 27 points and Pippen added 26 in a superb all-around game as the Bulls rolled to a 3-1 lead in the best-of-7 series. Chicago can wrap it up when the teams return to the United Center on Tuesday night for Game 5.

Shaken by a rare home playoff loss Thursday that evened the series, the Bulls beat one of the best home teams in the league on consecutive days.
