Many special events will occur throughout the University during Parents' Weekend. There are also plenty of activities available in and around town.

Here are some tips to help you entertain Mom and Dad while they're here — and have some fun yourself.

Campus Events

Linda Mehling of the Eugene Visitor's Bureau suggests visiting the Willamette Valley Folk Festival. The festival runs all weekend from 1 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. on the EMU East Lawn across from Carson Hall and features music, food and craft booths. This year's performances include Peter Rowan, the Mission Project and the Holmes Brothers. Don't miss local favorite Trillian Green on Friday night.

Other campus events include the University Theater's presentation of Ever the Dragon in the Robinson Theater Friday at 8 p.m.

Also, the University Art Museum will feature the Master of Fine Arts exhibit, consisting of artwork by University master's students. The museum will be open from noon until 5 p.m. Friday through Sunday.

Campus Tour

If the history of the University campus interests your parents, a guided tour of campus will be available on Saturday.

The Office of Student Life says the tours are "full of historic and

"Most of Us Became Managers in Less Time Than it Took to Graduate."

Since Enterprise recognizes and rewards talent, the average length of time it takes to reach a management-level position is less than three years. Of course, that has a lot to do with our initial selection of candidates.

We hire hard-working, entrepreneurial individuals who recognize what it takes to succeed. If this describes you, enter our fast-paced business as a Management Trainee, and we will reward your dedication and sales ability with raises, promotions and the opportunity to go as far as your talent will take you.
