

Emeralds: Eugene tied the score at four in the seventh inning

that jam," Mortimer said.

Eugene opened the scoring in the second inning when Stewart Smothers slid under the tag of Bears' catcher Will McCrotty after breaking for the plate on third baseman Brian Zaun's throw to first base on a groundout.

Yakima tied the score at one in the third when Rich Saitta singled and later scored on a groundout.

The score stayed tied until the top of the fifth when the Bears got back-to-back doubles from Saitta and Nick Leach, then a towering two-run home run by Cash Riley to put the Bears up by three, 4-1.

The Ems recovered in the sixth when Hines opened the offensive charge with his first double, and Jeff Spencer knocked him in with a single. First baseman Mark Burke followed with another double off the right-field fence that put runners on second and third. Spencer later scored on a groundout.

A sky-high pop-up by designated hitter John Arnold then fell in the middle of three Bears rushing to catch the ball in shallow center and scored Burke to tie the game once again, this time at four.

In the seventh, Hines hit a 1-1 pitch into the right-field corner that put the Ems up by one, 5-4, when Mortimer scored from third.

Bears' pitcher Bill Everly then walked intentionally walked Burke to put runners on first and second.

Smothers, the Ems' hit leader with 22, hit a dribbler in front of home plate that Bears' catcher Will McCrotty fielded and threw away, allowing Hines to score from second.

Designated hitter John Arnold then stuck out with runners on second and third to end the inning.

In the eighth, Brett Pierce led off the inning with a single and was promptly moved to third on Collin Wissen's single to right field.

Mortimer brought in the Ems' seventh run of the night with a base hit up the middle that scored Pierce and made the score 7-4.
