

Rock: Skinner Columns open to public seven days a week

"If you climb long enough, you'll encounter situations where the rules don't apply," Soule said.

The University and Lane Community College both hold classes for beginners to get into the sport. The Crux Climbing Gym also teaches classes on climbing safety and equipment expertise.

"What we try to do with young climbers is show them the differences between climbing indoor, like we have in our gym, and climbing outdoor at the columns," Crux employee Ron Vickrey said. "It's important to know the differences before you begin."

to climbers, and the area is run on a first-come, first-climb basis. It's free to climb, but climbers need to bring their own equipment, which can run into the hundreds of dollars.

Climbers scale at their own risk, but as the locals will point out, a climb to the top is like no other feeling on earth.
