

"...VIVACIOUSLY SUPPLE,
AMBER HUED WITH A REFRESHING
★ ZEN BALANCE ★
OF MALTY ARROGANCE AND FULL BODIED VISCOSITY..."

AAAAAAH!

Out of the glut of designer beers comes a most insidious epidemic...sudsologikis geekitis. Our cure? A frothy pint of MacTarnahan's Amber Ale. We like to think of it as a thirst quenching liquid. So belly up to the bar and say "Gimme a Mac's." And if anyone dare utter the word viscosity, kindly suggest a refreshing glass of 10W40.
