

MAJORITY RULES!

67% of college students don't binge drink.

72% of college students have not missed a class due to drinking.

70% of college students have not gotten into a fight or argument while drinking.

82% of college students prefer not to have illicit drugs present at social events.

67% of college students have not driven under the influence of alcohol.

Most Students Are Making Healthy Choices.

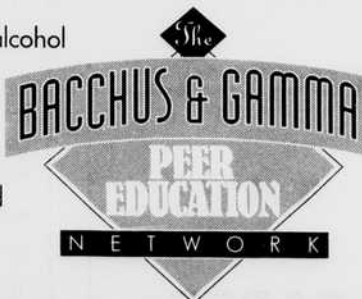

students will take part in activities and presentations that focus on the health and social issues legal age students face when they drink.

For more than 20 years, Anheuser-Busch has been proud to support the efforts of BACCHUS & GAMMA, a college peer

This week on over 3,000 campuses across the country, education program addressing alcohol abuse issues with more than 800 campus affiliates nationwide.

Their student members promote responsible decision-making and healthy lifestyles and encourage respect for the law.

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE ALCOHOL AWARENESS WEEK

Percentages reported based on result of the 1992-94 Core Alcohol and Drug Survey—Core Institute, Southern Illinois University. For more information about this poster or other BACCHUS & GAMMA Peer Education Network materials call 303-871-0901 or visit www.bacchusgamma.org