ELIZABETH REIS

UO Professor Elizabeth Reis will sign copies of her new book, Damned Women: Sinners & Witches in Puritan New England.

In her analysis of the cultural construction of gender in early America, Elizabeth Reis explores the intersection of Puritan theology, Puritan evaluations of womanhood, and the Salem witchcraft episodes.

Reading & Booksigning

Monday, Nov 24th
7:30pm • Knight Library Browsing Room
HENRY ALLEY

Honors College Professor Henry Alley will read from his latest book, The Quest for Anonymity: The Novels of George Eliot. Booksigning to follow. Cosponsored by The Knight Library.

In a new treatment of George Eliot's book-length fiction, Alley argues that from the very moment she adopted a male pseudonym through to the major epic and tragic novels of her later life, the transcendence of fame was her major consideration. Focusing on one novel in each chapter, the study shows how the plights of Eliot's heroines and heroes do not end in frustration but in an affirmation of anonymous achievement.

Reading & Booksigning
