the year, averaged almost 17 points and eight rebounds per game this season.

Men's notes

Oregon State sophomore guard Corey Benjamin has a press conference scheduled for 1 p.m. today in Fontana, Calif., during which he is expected to announce his intention to enter the NBA draft this summer. While Benjamin is still enrolled at Oregon State, sources say he hasn't been in Corvallis for some time.

Benjamin's teammate, sophomore John-Blair Bickerstaff, is expected to schedule a press conference at the end of this academic term at which he will answer the rumors of his intention to transfer from Oregon State after this season.

Bickerstaff, 18, was the youngest player in college basketball as a freshman and apparently wants to transfer to somewhere either in Colorado, where he attended high school, or near Washington D.C., where his father Bernie is head coach of the NBA's Washington Wizards.

Arizona point guard Mike Bibby has a press conference scheduled for Thursday at 3 p.m. during which he is expected to announce his decision to enter the NBA draft. Bibby led the Wildcats to a national championship as a freshman but was eliminated by national runner-up Utah in the Elite Eight this season.

Arizona sophomore Mike Bibby is expected to forgo his final two seasons of eligibility and enter the NBA draft.

CORRECTIONS

In the article "Questions abound as spring ball starts" (ODE, April 7), Oregon offensive coordinator Jeff Tedford was incorrectly identified. The Emerald regrets the error.
