ELECTION NEWS

Voters can cast ballots at several locations

By Michael Burnham
Community Editor

If the May 19 primary election has crept up on you or you've forgotten to send in your absentee ballot, don't panic. There are still a number of ways you can vote.

Voters can deposit their ballots between 7 a.m. and 8 p.m. at any polling location throughout the city. University students can also vote in the EMU Walnut Room.

If you are unsure of where to find additional polling locations, consult the 1998 Voters' Pamphlet or call the Lane County Elections Office at 682-4234.

If trucking it out to a polling place and filling out a ballot takes too much time out of your day, you may also be in luck.

Voters can deposit their ballots in the Lane County drop box in downtown Eugene. The drop box is adorned with a green "Lane County" logo and is located on Pearl Street between Seventh and Eighth avenues. Ballots must also be received at the drop box by 8 p.m. tonight.
