

Back to School Sale!

ROCK SOFT FUTON

Eugene's Finest Convertible Furniture

1231 Alder St. • 686-5069
M-S 11-6 Sun. 12-5

004150

NO BULL!

50% OFF Kodak PROCESSING

Save real money on Real Kodak Processing of color print films (C41). Get half off Developing and Printing until October 9 at gerlach's

849 E. 13th, Eugene
565 W. Centennial, Springfield

going overseas? catch the oregon daily emerald on the world wide web: www.uoregon.edu/~ode

MANUAL OPERATION AUTOMATIC ENJOYMENT

Take complete control with the Nikon FM10. The perfect camera for the student photographer.

- ✓ 35-70 Nikon Zoom Lens
- ✓ Shutter Speeds to 1/2000
- ✓ Built-in, easy to use meter
- ✓ Depth of field preview
- ✓ With case, strap, batteries

Nikon
We take the world's greatest pictures.
Since 1917.

All Nikon products include Nikon Inc. USA limited warranty.

$289.00

Women's golf team wins invitational

Oregon lost its initial lead but came back in its first tournament of the year

By Scott Pesznecker
Oregon Daily Emerald

First it blew away its competition. Next it blew away its big lead. But in the end, the Oregon women's golf team finished on top of the pack at the Portland Invitational Tuesday.

"For our first tournament, we were very happy with the way we played," head coach Renee Baumgartner said. "We opened with a bang."

After the first round of play concluded late Monday night, the Ducks led the Invitational by a blistering 22 strokes. However, a 24-over-par third round cut into the Duck's seemingly insurmountable lead.

"Today we slipped a bit and shot a 312, but we learned a lot from this tournament," Baumgartner said. "We need to not be so focused on the score, but we need to be more aggressive on the final day. We need to not worry about the scores but take it one shot at a time."

Senior Karen Bristrow shot a 71 in the first round of play, which set a new course record for The Reserve Country Club in Portland. Baumgartner said Bristrow's achievement was a great way to start her senior year.

But Baumgartner also called Tuesday's victory a total team effort. She said many of the golfers have had to step up this year to compensate for the losses of Kylie Wilson, Anika Heuser and Julie Smith, who are redshirting this season.

"This team has a lot of talent, and they worked hard over the summer," Baumgartner said. "There are a lot of new faces playing in the starting lineup, and they did a good job for their first tournament of the year."

The women will leave this Saturday for the NCAA Fall Preview in Tulsa, Okla. The Preview will feature the top 18 teams in the country, and among them Oregon has been ranked No. 7 by Golf Week.

"I have no expectations [about the Preview]," Baumgartner said. "We want to improve as a team and learn the course. That way, we won't put any extra added pressure on the team and we'll play well."

Men's golf

Continued from Page 15

while the win at the Husky Invitational was nice, the team's focus for the upcoming Nike Invitational remains the same.

"We want to focus on playing as well as we can," Nosler said. "The fact that we won doesn't change the focus for the next tournament."

Nosler said that Burtner's 217-stroke performance in the Husky Invitational strengthened his chances to travel to the Nike Invitational.

BECAUSE FROST BITES.

The cold can't sink its teeth into this heavyweight Polartec® fleece. If it gets too nasty, the Denali Jacket zips into a shell. Pit zips and draft flaps keep you well ventilated. Taslan overlays complete this jacket that's both toasty and tough.

NEVER STOP EXPLORING™

WHERE LAND, SKY & WATER MEET

MCKENZIE
OUTFITTERS

Downtown Eugene
79 West Broadway • 541 485-5946

Valley River Center
Up The Escalator • 541 343-2300