BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Oregon Daily Emerald is seeking a student representative to serve on its Board of Directors.

The ODE is governed by a ten-member volunteer board of directors, which includes two student body representatives appointed by the ASUO president. These students, appointed for a two-year term, must be enrolled for a minimum of six (undergraduate students) or three (graduate students) credit hours and may not be on the staff of the ODE.

Board members meet monthly to consider financial, policy, legal and personnel matters, including selection of editor and general manager. The board does not, however, get involved in editorial content. Additional attendance is sometimes required for committee meetings.

Application deadline is Monday, October 12 and term of office is effective upon appointment.
Submit letter of application and resume to:

Geneva Wortman, ASUO President
Suite 4, Erb Memorial Union.

The ODE is an equal opportunity employer committed to a culturally diverse workplace. Minorities are especially encouraged to apply.

Entertainment briefs

Duckfest kicks off Saturday on campus

Duckfest, a day-long whirlwind of student-related events, will take place Saturday. The events begin with a barbecue for residence hall students on the lawn of 15th Avenue and Agate Street from 4 to 6 p.m. Various recreational activities will be available, including sand volleyball.

The EMU Recreation Center will be open from 6 to 9 p.m., featuring billiards, foosball and a video arcade. The Buzz Coffeehouse in the EMU will feature stand-up comedians from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Finally, free swing dance lessons will be offered at 8 p.m. in the EMU Ballroom, followed by a free concert (with student I.D.) by Indigo Swing at 9 p.m.

Vietnamese play hits Robinson Theatre

The Central Dramatic Company of Vietnam will present a single performance of "Truong Ba's Soul in the Butcher's Skin" Oct. 4, in the University's Robinson Theatre at 8 p.m. The play will tell the story of a gardener whose life is taken by two gods.

The man's soul is moved into the body of a dead butcher. The play is performed in Vietnamese, but it will be accompanied by English supertitles.

Tickets are $5 for students and $8 for the general public. Tickets are available at the EMU ticket office or the University Theatre box office in Robinson Theatre. Call 346-4363 or 346-4191 for details.

Two actors perform a scene in the upcoming Robinson Theatre attraction "Truong Ba's Soul in the Butcher's Skin."
