

Elam, Davis lead Broncos to victory while setting records

Denver beats the Jaguars of Jacksonville 37-24 and stays undefeated

By John Mossman
The Associated Press

DENVER — Jason Elam kicked himself into the NFL record book, while Terrell Davis ran for some pretty good company, too.

Elam tied a 28-year-old NFL record with a 63-yard field goal and Davis rushed for three touchdowns to lead the Denver Broncos to a 37-24 victory over the Jacksonville Jaguars on Sunday. Denver is 7-0 for the first time in its history.

Elam's kick at the end of the first half matched the 63-yarder New Orleans' Tom Dempsey kicked in 1970.

"It's an old record, and I'm proud to have a piece of it," Elam said. "I swung about as hard as I can swing at it. I hit it really clean."

Davis, the NFL's rushing leader, ran for 136 yards to reach 1,001 yards for the season, making him only the third player in NFL history to reach 1,000 in seven games. He joins Jim Brown (1958) and O.J. Simpson (1973 and 1975) as the only players to do it in seven games.

Davis' performance snapped an NFL-best string of 18 regular-season games in which Jacksonville (5-2) had not allowed an individual 100-yard rusher.

Davis' 37-yard scoring run early in the fourth quarter proved to be the clincher, giving the Broncos a 34-17 lead. John Elway completed 21 of 35 passes for 295 yards and a touchdown for the Broncos.

Jacksonville's Mark Brunell was 28-of-46 for 353 yards and three touchdowns, but he was sacked seven times.

Overall, the Broncos, turnover-free for the fourth time this season, generated 465 yards to 348 for the Jaguars.

"They are an exceptional team," Jacksonville coach Tom Coughlin said. "We aren't playing at their level right now. We played real sound against the run, and then Terrell would have a big play against us. We competed, but we had trouble protecting our quarterback."

Davis ran for two first-half touchdowns and Elam kicked his 63-yarder as time expired in the half, giving Denver a 27-10 lead.

Davis' 16-yard run and Elway's 20-yard pass to Shannon Sharpe and 26-yarder to Ed McCaffrey on Denver's opening possession set up Elam's 31-yard field goal.

The Jaguars countered with

Mike Hollis' 45-yard field goal. Elway put the Broncos ahead 10-3 on the first play of the second quarter with a 41-yard scoring pass to McCaffrey on a crossing pattern that beat cornerback Aaron Beasley.

It triggered a 24-point quarter for the Broncos.

Brunell fumbled a snap and Denver's Keith Traylor recovered at the Jaguars 9.

Just 23 seconds later, the Jaguars got their first touchdown. Reggie Barlow, faking a pass on a kickoff return, ran 91 yards to the Denver 4, and Brunell hit rookie running back Fred Taylor with a TD pass on the next play.
