

UO women increase standing

The golf team still sits in the middle of the pack at the Bruin Classic

The Oregon women's golf team moved up one place in the standings, finishing in sixth place with a score of 318 after Day 2 of the three-day Bruin Classic.

The invitational will conclude today in the late afternoon at the Menefee Lakes Country Club in Menefee, Calif.

Although the Ducks are sitting in the middle of the 12-team field, Round 2 was slightly better for Oregon than Round 1. Four out of its five competitors beat their first round scores.

After a subpar performance in Round 1, Oregon's Jerilyn White led the Ducks on the second day with an even-par score of 72, finishing with a cumulative score of 153. Her second-round success moved her into a four-way tie that included the Ducks' Karen Bristow.

Bristow shot a 76 in Day 2, improving slightly from her team-leading score of 77 in Round 1.

Dawn Berry finished the day tied for 18th individually with a second-round score of 76 and a combined score of 155, which tied her for 18th place overall. Pam Sowden shook off a disappointing score of 81 in the first round to score 76 in Round 2, finishing with a score of 159.

Claire Hunter and Kimi Cunningham struggled through the first two rounds of play. Hunter recorded scores of 81 and 82, while Cunningham shot a 94 in the first round and 89 in the second.

Playing as an individual during the invitational, Angie Rizzo tied for 31st place with a two-round combined score of 158.

Oklahoma State's Maria Boden leads the tournament after Round 2 with a score of 143, and teammate Jo Jo Robertson is in second place with a score of 145. Susan Horton of Texas Christian is in third place with a score of 147.

Leading all other teams is Oklahoma State with a score of 593. UCLA and Pepperdine are tied for second place after Round 2, each holding scores of 615. Texas Christian University and Texas Tech are tied in fourth with scores of 617.

The Ducks opened their spring season Feb. 8 at the OSU/SMU Challenge in Palos Verdes, Calif. Oregon shot its worst round in the final round of the three-day tournament to finish 16th in the 18-team field.

Sowden led the Ducks in the tournament with a three-round score of 235, finishing 18th overall. White tied for 54th with a score of 239, and Bristow and Berry tied for 60th at 241.

Last fall, Oregon finished in the top 8 in all five of its fall events.

deed beatable.

"I don't think there's a player in America who's made more big shots down the stretch to make the difference between winning and losing games," Arizona head coach Lute Olson said of his senior standout.

UCLA head coach Steve Lavin, who has his No. 16 Bruins in third place, said he expects a thriller when the two conference heavyweights grapple Saturday.

"I would imagine it will be one of the more intriguing, competitive games of the season in the Pac-10 conference, because there's so much at stake this late in the year," Lavin said.

"Both teams are aware of how critical the outcome of the game will be in terms of not only the conference race but the postseason and seedings and bragging rights and confidence heading into the [NCAA] Tournament."

The highlighted individual matchup in a game of great one-on-one battles will be at point guard between Terry and Cardinal senior Arthur Lee. The Wildcats' other big-gun senior, A.J. Bramlett, will wrestle with Stanford senior Tim Young in the low post.

Having established that he expects all 40 minutes of the game, which will be televised on FX, to be hotly contested, Lavin made Stanford his favorite.

"I think Maples Pavilion gives Stanford a little bit of an edge, and I think Stanford's experience overall in their starting lineup gives them a little edge," said Lavin, who has gone 1-0 against Arizona and 0-2 against the Cardinal this season.

"I'd say Stanford by three."

Horoscope by Frances Drake

For Wednesday, Feb. 24, 1999
ARIES
(March 21 to April 19)

A friend or fellow worker will be of tremendous assistance when it comes to the crunch. Be sure that you're not ignoring the voice of intuition.

TAURUS
(April 20 to May 20)

Problems with authority figures loom on the horizon — be sure to dot your i's and cross all your t's. Doing things by the book will save you time and money in the long run.

GEMINI
(May 21 to June 20)

Everyone seems to be on your wavelength, so don't be afraid to lay your cards on the table. Partnered Geminis may find that significant others require extra attention.

CANCER
(June 21 to July 22)

If you feel cheated, ask yourself if you would really be any happier if you'd gotten what you thought you wanted. It's time to cut your losses and make the most of a bad situation.

LEO
(July 23 to Aug. 22)

Everything seems to be going in the opposite direction from what you had planned. People respect your ability to go with the flow and accept the changes.

VIRGO
(Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)

Signals may be crossed and lines of communication filled with static. You might be forced to find new ways of conveying your message to the masses.

LIBRA
(Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)

Make the most of a period filled with high energy and creative overflow. You impress all of the right people at all of the best times.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)

Resist the urge to play cat-and-mouse games with someone you genuinely care about. Although scarier, the direct approach will get you much further.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)

While others may not share your good mood, they certainly shouldn't fault you for being in one. Seek out company that better suits your disposition.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)

While freedom is a wonderful thing, it often comes with a hefty price tag. Make sure that your efforts to avoid intimacy are not based in fear alone.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)

All kinds of people are affected by your startling vision and good sense of humor. You have the potential to create or destroy — use it wisely.

PISCES
(Feb. 19 to March 20)

Schedule some time into a busy week for just relaxing and hanging out with good friends. You can't work at full capacity when you're exhausted and stressed-out.

YOU BORN TODAY As a passionate, sensitive individual who always roots for the underdog, you win many hearts. Paradoxically, at times your endless energy for the new can lead you to appear fickle. You excel in all manner of creative and artistic endeavors.
