

Sophomore David Becker lost his match against Santa Barbara on Sunday. The men's tennis team is set to play Pacific this Saturday at 1 p.m.

Men's tennis holds off Santa Barbara

Oregon thrived off early points in doubles play and held off Santa Barbara in men's tennis Sunday at the Eugene Swim and Tennis Club.

The Ducks (4-7) hardly resembled the team that was dismantled by Washington just more than a week ago. Miguel Arriaga and Carlos Navarro earned Oregon's first points, defeating Sandy Gentile and Mike Ortiz, 8-3. After a Santa Barbara victory over David Becker and Thomas Schneider, the Ducks rallied from a 7-5 deficit and won 9-8, courtesy of Guillermo Carter and Bertrand Devillers.

However, Oregon's top singles players were unable to score any points against Corey Guy and Simon Shen, two players whom Oregon coach Chris Russell believes can "beat any top two players in the nation."

Carter seemed in control in the first set against Shen, leading 4-1 early. But Shen came back to tie the set at 5-5 and won it 7-6. Similar problems occurred for Carter in the next set, as he watched another 4-1 lead evaporate and lost the set.

Guy had his way with Schneider in their singles match, winning 6-2, 6-1 in a match that Russell felt was uncharacteristic of Schneider's play.

"He didn't do well, but he has been our most consistent performer all year," Russell said.

Encouraging for Oregon was the dominating play of Devillers, Russell said. The freshman from Belgium had no problem disposing of Mike Ortiz, 6-0, 6-1.

Overall, Russell said he was impressed with his team's performance.

"Our guys have made an effort to get better after losses, and this match rewarded them for their hard work," he said.

Oregon will prepare this week for its home match against Pacific on Saturday. Russell said the Tigers bring a lot of talent to the match.

"When they are healthy, they are as good if not better than Santa Barbara. We can't think things will come to us; we have to go out and take it to them," Russell said.

Horoscope by Frances Drake

For Monday, March 8, 1999

ARIES

(March 21 to April 19)
You create a flawless first impression, winning the confidence and approval of strangers. Don't forget that your friends need attention, too.

TAURUS

(April 20 to May 20)
An excellent time to act on your convictions. You are a person of strong beliefs and enormous willpower; don't act as though you are content to follow the crowd.

GEMINI

(May 21 to June 20)
Take a short time to appreciate the wide range of possibilities open to you. You can do nearly anything you want to do. The question is, what will make you the happiest?

CANCER

(June 21 to July 22)
You are forced to acknowledge a problem that has existed for a long time. This problem will not ruin everything, but you cannot continue to pretend it does not affect you.

LEO

(July 23 to Aug. 22)
Everybody's looking at you, and why should they do anything else? Your personality and your appearance are equally bright; no one can refrain from glancing in your direction.

VIRGO

(Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)
You may be carrying on an old vendetta out of sheer habit. If this is the case, letting go will free up your energy for other pursuits.

LIBRA

(Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)
Always outwardly cheerful, you could be the very voice of optimism at this time. More importantly, you believe what you're saying. The world seems like an extremely good place.

SCORPIO

(Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)
Proceed according to your own plan, but only after you have checked over your preparations. Stock up on provisions and supplies.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)
Anything you try your hand at is a success at this time. Your peers credit you with having more genius and bravery than you even suspected of yourself.

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)
Keep skepticism to a minimum when asked for comments on a co-worker's performance. Remember that different paths can lead to the same destination.

AQUARIUS

(Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)
You may find that a festive, generous spirit is pervasive at this time. Declare a holiday; make a cake or give little gifts to your friends and family.

PISCES

(Feb. 19 to March 20)
You have declared your independence from any clique or category; now everyone seems to want you. Luckily, you can relate to almost any kind of person at this time.

YOU BORN TODAY Sensitive and compassionate, you are a friend to anyone who needs it and a friend of the universe in general. You have a knack for understanding the subtext in people's speech, and can respond in kind. Your intuitive abilities can be tiring or stressful at times; sometimes you feel overwhelmed by emotional baggage.
