

Eastman steps down as WSU men's hoops coach

By John K. Wiley
The Associated Press

PULLMAN, Wash. — Washington State men's basketball coach Kevin Eastman resigned Wednesday, saying "common sense and reality" dictated the move.

WSU athletic director Rick Dickson made the announcement a day after firing women's basketball coach Harold Rhodes and four days after the men's team finished the season in the Pacific-10 Conference cellar at 4-14.

"Emotion didn't even play a part in this thing... common sense and reality did," Eastman said of his decision. "And reality is, recruiting would have been very difficult under the circumstances, and recruiting is the lifeblood of any program."

Dickson said he hoped to have replacements announced for Eastman and Rhodes around the time of the men's NCAA Final Four, which begins March 27.

Eastman said he gave Dickson a list of possible successors and acknowledged that Gonzaga head coach Dan Monson was on it.

Dickson said he had not yet contacted any prospective coaches for either job but had begun assembling a campus panel to help conduct the searches.

Reached at the NCAA regional tournament in Seattle, Monson said he would assess his opportunities after the season ends.

"I don't have any interest in any job right now. I've got a great one," Monson said. "I love it at Gonzaga. I haven't thought of any other job."

Eastman, 43, said he resigned rather than face the "heavy, heavy scrutiny and maybe some craziness" in the final year of a five-year contract that was extended for a year after the Cougars' 1996 NIT appearance.

He said he wanted to avoid hurting the chances of his returning players because of poor recruiting.

"We were getting hit pretty hard this year in recruiting," he said. "We were getting hammered big time."

Eastman said he called the coaches or parents Tuesday night of four prep recruits who committed early to WSU to tell them of his decision.

Dickson said Eastman agreed to step down after a meeting Tuesday to evaluate the season.

"In that process, Kevin and I came to the agreement on exactly the status of our program and where we were," Dickson told a news conference.

"I did not ask for his resignation," Dickson said. "At his estimation, this was the best direction to go."

Eastman said the recent disappointments led to his decision.

"With some of the knocks we took this year both on the floor and in other areas, and what maybe surrounds the program because of those knocks, recruiting would have been very difficult," he said.

"I want our guys to be very successful. I think we are quite close to having the type of season we would want to have. ... However, we are not there yet.

"I think you have to really think about those you're leading, and I think you have to make decisions based on what's best for them," he said.

Horoscope by Frances Drake

For Thursday, March 11, 1999

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)
Although you may be frustrated with your job, you should not give up yet. Throw yourself into your work, and encourage others to do the same.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)
You are able to absorb an enormous amount of detailed information and then file it away in your brain for later use. Now is the time to read the computer manual you've been dreading to open.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20)
You may feel uncomfortable about being the subject of a discussion. However, an inner feeling of confusion or dissatisfaction can be dissolved if you're willing to talk about it.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22)
Something may threaten the sanctity of your home or your relationship. Before you act to defend yourself, figure out the direction from which the danger comes.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22)
A veritable fever of industry could sweep over you, causing you to work harder than you ever have. People who formerly thought you frivolous are forced to change their opinion.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)
Lose yourself in the intricate steps of an assignment or domestic project. Take pride in the excellent, thorough quality of your work.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)
It may be time for a reconciliation with an estranged friend or family member. Bring all your diplomatic skills to bear when dealing with a difficult situation from long ago.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)
It is the appropriate time to seek clear answers from authority figures. You are able to ask logical and pointed questions without letting emotion get in the way.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)
Follow up on outstanding invoices, both the ones payable to you and the ones you must pay. If you leave a question unresolved, it will take more time to solve later.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)
You have built a castle, step by step, on solid, unwavering ground. Your steady, painstaking and patient work ethic pays off with a level of success that few could hope to attain.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)
Unfinished tasks and forgotten promises demand attention at this time. The danger of doing many things at once is that you may forget something of great importance.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20)
You have known what you wanted for some time, and at last you are prepared to go forth and attain your goals. You are a willing and strong competitor.

YOU BORN TODAY The world became a more magical place the day you were born. Or perhaps the world was always magical; you are simply able to recognize it and point it out to others. You are on speaking terms with enchanted princesses, offer sympathy to wicked witches and, at least once, will find the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow.
