Come home for the new millennium!

Find out for yourself why more students choose for their home away from home! Applications for next year are now available, so come check us out.

Our offices are open M-F, 8-5 and Sat 9-1, or email us at: ducksvillage@earthlink.net, 3225 Kinsrow Ave, 485-7200

14th & Alder 344-4471

March Madness

♦ A large selection

of Microbrews

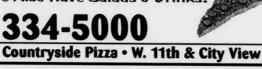

Add your favorite toppings, and get FREE DELIVERY on orders $8 or more.

HOT, DELICIOUS, CHEESE PIZZA We Also Have Salads & Drinks!

334-5000

8th & Lincoln

Dub Narcotic Sound System, icu, Tonight Miranda July, Kicking Giant... Indie Rock/Electronic. Doors 9:00 pm

Less Than Jake. All. Good Riddance, Limp... Saturday Dance Party with Jesus Presiey... RGB.

Punk Rock. Doors 6:30 pm; shoutime
7:30. Tickets $10 advance, $10 door.

Monday Peter Himmelman

Band with John

Night with Skye CD Release Wesley Harding... Folk Party... Celtic Folk. Doors 8:00 pm; sbowtime 8:30.

Rock. Doors 7:30 pm; sbowtime 8:00. Tickets $10 advance, $11 door.

St. Patrick's Day Irish Pub

Tichets $8 advance, $10 door. Wednesday Tuesday

687-2746

All Ages Welcome

Find Fun Stuff in the ODE Classifieds

The Oregon Daily Emerald is published daily Monday through Friday during the school year and Tuesday and Thursday during the summer by the Oregon Daily Emerald Publishing Co. Inc., at the University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon. A member of the Associated Press, the Emerald operates in-dependently of the University with offices in Suite 300 of the Erb Memorial Union. The Emerald is private property. The unlawful removal or use of papers is prosecutable by law.

The state of the state of the state of

NEWSROOM — 346-5511 Editor in chief: Ryan Frank Managing Editor: Kristina Rudinskas Community: Mike Hines, editor. Entertainment: Nicole Garton, editor, Jack Clifford, Bryan Petersen Freelance: Ashley Bach, editor.
Higher Education: Teri Meeuwsen, editor. G. Jaros, Tricia Schwennesen

Medeiros, Ashley Bach, columnists Brian Dixon, Giovanni Salimena, illustrators Student Activities: Sarah Skidmore, editor, Jason George, James Scripps, Erin Snelgrove Sports: Joel Hood, editor, Rob Moseley, asst. editor. Tim Pyle, Scott Pessracker, Allison Ross Copy Desk: Jennifer Shinen, Rich Dirks, copy chiefs. Emily Aanderud, Monica Hande, Amy Horton, Stephen Palermini, Tom Patterson resignation two weeks ago.

Katie Nesse, graphic designer: Scott Barnett, Arnanda Cowan, Matt Hankins, Nick Medley, photographers. Catherine Kendall, George Rowe, Jeff Stockton, Kristen

Students lobbying for increase in Pell Grant needs," said Tevis Hurst, a senior journalism major.

Student leaders from the ASUO, Associated Students of Lane Community College, the state chapter of OSPIRG and the Committee to Re-establish OSPIRG are lobbying Oregon's senators and representatives in Washington, D.C., to support a $400-per-student increase in federal funding for those who receive a Pell Grant.

The increase would raise the maximum award for Pell Grant recipients by 12 percent, from $3,125 to $3,525.

More than 3.9 million students nationwide receive Pell Grants to pay for college. Seventy percent of the grants go to students from families with yearly incomes of $20,000 or less.

"This is just one of the many campaigns OSPIRG and the ASUO are working on to make access to education a lot easier," said Jereme Grzybowski from the Committee to Re-establish OSPIRG.

Because of the decline in Pell Grant funding, students pursuing a college degree now face greater financial burdens. The average debt among graduating seniors has risen to approximately $14,000. according to the ASUO.

The maximum Pell Grant award paid for three-quarters of the average cost of attendance at a fouryear university in the late 1970s, according to OSPIRG. Today, the maximum award only pays for one-third of the cost.

Auction

University education.

The grant only covers

one-third the cost of a

For some students, an additional $400 a year could mean an extra outfit from the J. Crew catalog, a few more trips to the mountain or a couple more rounds at Taylor's.

But for students who receive the federal Pell Grant, it means accommodating the rising cost of a

"The cost of receiving an education is getting more and more expensive and it only makes sense that the government should raise the Pell Grant to meet those

University education

By Kelly Delaney

Continued from Page 1A

men's basketball coach Ernie Kent, women's basketball coach Jody Runge and football coach Mike Bellotti are among the University representatives on the committee

Bellotti said he has been involved with the auction since its inception three years ago.

"I believe that helping the homeless is important," he said.
"Anything that benefits the local community is worthy of my

Bellotti said he likes to lend a hand with anything he can.

Frohnmayer joins the honorary committee this year and shares Bellotti's concern for community

"Although this is my first time as a committee member, I have long been aware of the important human service provided by Lane Shelter Care," he said. "I am always anxious to assist needed community efforts such Lane Shelter Care chooses each committee member based on his or her position in the community, Bunch said.

'We just solicit folks that have been known to have an interest in the services we provide and have name recognition in the community," she said.

The silent auction will begin with eight separate pools of tables with bid sheets on each one. The opening bid will be set at onethird the item's value.

Participants can continuously make bids throughout the day and the one with the highest bid when the table closes wins.

Bunch said the auction is used solely for fund-raising efforts for the organization's homeless housing programs. She said revenues from the auction have been growing every year.

The first year we made $10,000, and we expect to make over $50,000 this year," she said.

Lane Shelter Care is helping 1,200 families this year through its two homeless services, she Felicity Ayles covers city development and the West University neighborhood for the Emerald. She can be reached via e-mail at fizzer@gladstone.uoregon.edu.

Forum

Continued from Page 1A

film club, or choose from a number of how-to workshops, including "Hands-on Science for Women," "Becoming an Advocate for Girls" and "Community Service and Values."

At the same time, girls can attend small-group "Getting to Know You" sessions and a panel discussion.

After lunch, girls will have the opportunity to attend sessions led by professors and students in creative writing, fine arts and Web design. Other session, as well as other artists from the community.

From 3 to 4 p.m., girls will have the opportunity to showcase what they learned during the previous sessions at "The Girls' Show" in the EMU Ballroom. This part of the conference is open to the pub-

Other sponsors for this weekend's events include the College of Education's Youth Enrichment/TAG program, Eugene 4J School District, the University's Center for the Study of Women in Society and the University Admissions Office.

Continued from Page 1A

Apple Macintosh and Mac OS computers will have no problem working with the new millennium, according to Macintosh's Y2K help page. Older software may have a problem.

Earlier model IBM computers may need some tools to help them prepare for Y2K, but all are available for free by contacting IBM, according to the IBM Year 2000 home page.

New justice named for Undergraduate student and

ASUO Constitution Court member Jeremy Gibbons was named as the new Constitution Court Chief Justice Thursday. Gibbons will fill the void left by Joel Corcoran's

Gibbons has been a member of

News Briefs

Constitution Court

If an IBM computer is on when the new century begins, customers are advised to turn the computer off and then back on once, or restart the operating system to ensure the internal clock resets itself, according to the home page.

The University home page has a Y2K link that will connect PC users to various computer companies as well as other important Y2K information.

the only undergraduate, non-law student on the court. He said he felt there is a "job that needs to be done" and that he is ready for the

The chief justice is responsible for maintaining procedure in public hearings, assigning opinions and other administrative

Computer owners who have concerns can log onto the net at www.download.com. The site has freeware programs that can be found by doing a Y2K search. The programs will test the computer for any problems and offer solutions.

Giusti summed up the Y2K / PC situation.

"Don't panic," he said. "It's pretty much a nonissue. That's why you don't hear anything about it."

Today's Events the court since spring 1998. He is

Friday, March 12

Oregon Ballroom Dance at 7:30 p.m. Room 220, Gerlinger Hall; $3 general nu $2 students and faculty. Call 346-6025.

The Oregon Jazz Ensemble and Jazz Lab bands, 8 p.m., Beall Concert Hall; $5 public, $3 senior citizens and students. Call 346-5678.

Oregon Emerald

editors. Aaron Artman, Amy Goldhammer, Vince

News Art: Matt Garton, editor. th: Nicole Garton, David Ryan Perspective: Kameron Cole Stefanie Knowtton

CLASSIFIEDS — 346-4343 Trina Shanaman, manager.

position.

On-line: Jake Ortman, editor.

ADVERTISING - 346-3712

Becky Merchant, director, Rachelle Bowden, Leigh-Ann Cyboron, Brian Dia-mond, Dan Hageman, Doug Hentges, Andrew Lake-fish, Amy Ruppert, Erick Schiess, Emily Wallace

Erin Gauthier, Lauren Howry, Kate Lamb, Debbie Levy, Tara Rothermel

BUSINESS - 346-5512

General Manager: Judy Riedl Business: Kathy Carbone, business supervisor. Judy Connolly, receptionist Distribution: Jason Flemming, John Long, Charles Scholes, Zach Tessmer

PRODUCTION - 346-4381

Michele Ross, manager. Tara Sloan, coordinator.
Joselyn Bickford, Nicole Garton, Sarah Kickler, Laura Lucas, Katie Nesse, Brandt Nelson, Broc Nelson, Gabe