Iowa State point guard Stacy Frese committed a rare turnover on the Cyclones' next possession and Oregon forward Angelina Wolvert converted two free throws for the Ducks to bring Oregon within three points.

But the No. 16 Ducks would not score again for four minutes as the Cyclones exploited the Pac-10's top-rated defense for seven straight points and extended their lead to 57-47.

"Our defense is what has won us games all season," Bowyer said. "It's disappointing that we lost the last game of the season because of our defense."

It was anybody's game in the first half as the two teams traded baskets for the first 10 minutes. Oregon jumped out to an early 6-2 lead on two three-pointers by freshman Shaquala Williams. Iowa State guard Megan Taylor countered with a three-pointer that gave the Cyclones a 7-6 lead.

The score was tied four times in the first half — the last coming at 22-22 — but Iowa State went on a 16-1 run from that point and never looked back. The Cyclones led 48-38 at halftime.

"That was the most critical part of the game," Iowa State head

"Our defense is what has won us games all season. It's disappointing that we lost the last game of the season because of our defense."

Oregon guard

coach Bill Fennelly said. "Before that it was back and forth. Obviously I didn't make a good defensive decision and we left Sha-

Williams open for two three-pointers. But we made some adjustments and that was a telltale part of the game."

Jenny Mowe led Oregon, shooting nine for nine from the field and two for three from the free-throw line. Mowe finished with a team-high 20 points, but managed only four rebounds.

"Their posts were more athletic than we expected," Mowe said. "They got quite a few points and were really aggressive on the boards."

Iowa State center Angie Welle led all scorers with 21 points and had 10 rebounds. The Cyclones outrebounded the Ducks, 38-24, including 15 offensive boards.

"All week long we heard how physical and how big Oregon was," Welle said. "I took that as a challenge. I just wanted to match them physically. I didn't care if I scored or got rebounds, I just wanted to match them."

Oregon 65, Cincinnati 56

The Ducks tied a school record with their 25th win behind 14 points and 13 rebounds from sophomore Brianne Meharry on Friday. It was Oregon's first NCAA Tournament victory since beating San Diego State in 1997.

Horoscope by Frances Drake

For Monday, March 15, 1999

ARIES
(March 21 to April 19)
Friends, family or workers are acting exceptionally helpful. It's nice that people close to you appreciate how much you mean to them.

TAURUS
(April 20 to May 20)
Potential problems at work or at home might cause some power struggles, but all is not lost. The evening looks much better for you, so indulge in something that makes you happy.

GEMINI
(May 21 to June 20)
This is an excellent day to communicate your great ideas and put together plans for the future. A little charm and tact goes a long way.

CANCER
(June 21 to July 22)
Your decision-making process benefits when you use your head rather than your heart. When you see clearly, you know you are doing the right thing.

LEO
(July 23 to Aug. 22)
Relationships might be weighing a bit heavy, but things will improve. It's OK to have different opinions, but don't let that get in the way of caring and sharing with each other.

VIRGO
(Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)
Why not let your hair down and live a little? Things may be a little off-kilter, but that shouldn't stop you from having a little bit of fun.

LIBRA
(Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)
You're feeling especially creative and energetic. Others envy your originality, so express yourself freely. If people don't understand you, don't let it stop you from pursuing your goals.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)

Listen carefully to input from others, but take action only when it's best for you. You know what's best for you, and sometimes that means taking time to explore the facts instead of acting with haste.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)
This is a great day to spend alone. If you can sneak away and spend some time for yourself, you will enjoy it immensely. Look back in time and see how far you've come.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)
You feel as if you're soaring on cloud nine, but check your reality for a minute. Anything seems possible, so why not take some time to lay the groundwork for getting something you desperately want and deserve?

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)
A true visionary, you are a crusader for change. You might have immediate goals for work or at home, but thinking on a broader scale will reap bigger rewards. Your devotion and passion do not go unnoticed.

PISCES
(Feb. 19 to March 20)
You're feeling particularly creative, and your mind is reeling. Messages from the sensory world are sharp and rife with meaning.

YOU BORN TODAY Compassion and empathy are your strengths, but make sure that others are worthy of your special attention. You have an exceptional capacity for social tolerance and warmth, but be careful to not be too self-sacrificing along the way. Your intuition is incredible, and you see things that others miss.

Birthdate of: Michelangelo, genius/artist/sculptor; Andrew Jackson, seventh president of the United States; Judd Hirsch, actor.
