- Quick walk to classes

The University of Oregon actively promotes cultural diversity and equal opportunity. We honor the humanity that joins us, and we celebrate the differences that distinguish us. University Housing has an expectation that all residents will actively participate in creating welcoming communities that value all members without regard to race, color, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, religion, marital status, disability or veteran status. If you would like additional information about a housing space that will best suit your needs, please feel free to call our Interim Associate Director for Residence Life, Sheri Donahoe at (541)346-4277.

Applications are available in the Office of University Housing in the Walton Complex or by calling 346-4277.
