

Halloween is a time of celebration at the UO. We hope to see you at the events!

Friday, October 29

UO Fall Family Weekend (Friday, October 29 - Sunday, October 31). Call Office of Student Life for more information, 6-3216.

UO Ice Hockey vs. UCLA. 7:00 p.m. Lane County Ice Arena; $2 students, $4 general public. Call 6-3733 for more information.

Vampyr Cultural Forum Friday Night Film Series, 8:00 p.m. 180 PLC; $2 students, $3 general public.

Masquerade in Monte Carlo. UO's First Annual Homecoming Ball. 8:30 p.m. EMU Ballroom. Purchase tickets at The Break, EMU. $12 per individual, $20 per couple.

The School of Music presents a choral concert with UO Ensembles. 7:00 p.m. Beall Hall. Call 6-5678 for information.

Saturday, October 30

Homecoming Football Game vs. Arizona State. Show up early at Stadium Plaza for Multicultural Tailgater (12:30 p.m. through the game), get some FREE FOOD and have some fun!

UO Ice Hockey vs. UCLA. 7:30 p.m. Lane County Ice Arena.

David Spade, former Saturday Night Live comedian. 9:00 p.m. Mac Court; $10 students, $20 general public. Call UO Cultural Forum at 6-4373. Tickets available at EMU Ticket Office and at all FASTIXX locations.

Halloween Dance, sponsored by the International Student Association. Free food, music, costume contest. 8:00 p.m. to midnight, Riley Hall.

Midnight Breakfast (immediately following the David Spade event). 11:30 p.m. to 3:00 a.m. EMU Fishbowl. Don't miss out on the free hot breakfast, Karaoke, a DJ, and more!

Sunday, October 31

Rocky Horror Picture Show Doors open at 10:00 p.m.; pre-show starts at 10:15 p.m. Local cast will perform. Remember to bring rice, toast and newspapers. Be prepared for R-rated content. UO students in costume are FREE!! $3 for students without costumes, $5 general public.

As you begin your weekend, remember:

- 96% of UO students have never damaged property while under the influence of alcohol.*
- 77% of UO students strongly disapprove of behavior that results in confrontation between students and police.*
- 86% of UO students would leave an area or move back from the action if the police asked them to disperse, Less than 2% of UO students would stay where they are; 1% would engage in confrontations with the police.

Most UO students make good choices.
Stay safe and have a great weekend!

* Data taken from the 1998 CORE Survey.

 11% were unsure. Data taken from the 1998 CORE Survey.
Costumes furnished by Halloween Boutique at Gateway Mall.

2000

Office of the Dean of Student Life