Y2K calendars

We have one of Eugene's best selections of calendars for the millennium year 2000.

From engagement, to 365-day, to beautiful wall calendars, you can find yours upstairs in our Books area. Great for gifts, too!

Your Duck Stop! Gives $3500.00 to Birth to Three!

This month our Duck Stop! Espresso Bar presented a donation check for $3,584 to Birth to Three. The amount represents tips from all of you, our wonderful coffee customers collected at our Espresso Bar throughout the past school year. THANK YOU!

LAURA FROM OUR DUCK STOP! HOLDS A THANK YOU FROM BIRTH TO THREE

Birth to Three is an educational and support group in Eugene for parents. Their mission is to strengthen families from all backgrounds by promoting educational programs for parents and children, with scholarships and sliding scales to make the programs available to all income levels.

This is the third year that The Duck Stop! has contributed customer tips to community service organizations. In prior years, The Eugene/Springfield Literacy Council received a check for $1,000 and WomenSpace a check for $5,200.

THIS YEAR YOUR COFFEE TIPS GO TO FOOD FOR LANE COUNTY.

Hi, I'm SERRA!

From Lake Bluff, IL, Serra is an outdoors person who frequently hikes and camps, which explains her Environmental Studies major. She claims there are more weirdos in Eugene than Chicago!

Hi, I'm ERYNN!

Raised in Salem, Erynn is stressed out right now developing a web page for antique books. Guess her major? Graphic Design. Her favorite food is pasta with marinara sauce.

Hi, I'm MOLLY!

Molly is from Corvallis, but went to school here because her high school pals all went to OSU. She is in the Journalism School. Once she broke her knee dancing in Mexico.

Hi, I'm ARLYN!

Arlyn spends his life in a 5 mile radius of the Bookstore, though born in Albuquerque, NM. A marketing grad, Arlyn played water polo at the UO. He now manages merchandise and the Duck Shops for us.
