the first time since 1943 and are off to their best overall start since 1974-75, when the Kamikaze Kids began 15-2.

And, more importantly, Oregon stayed within pace of the Pac-10 leaders on a day when Arizona (5-1) was upset by USC (5-0).

"We're on one of those magical runs," said Oregon head coach Ernie Kent on KUGN, referring to Thursday's overtime win over Washington. "We just find a way to pull it out and get it done."

On a team with as much depth as Oregon, there seems to be a new hero every game. Bracey led the charge against the Huskies on Thursday and on Saturday night it was senior forward Alex Scales.

Scales poured in a career-high 27 points, including two crucial threes in the final minute of regulation. The latter came with 34 seconds left and knotted the score at 72 heading into overtime.

He was also the one who made the crucial defensive stop on Washington State's Thomas when he missed the potential game-winner with four seconds left in overtime, which led to the aforementioned melee for the ball.

"Big time players step up at big times," said Kent, who celebrated his 45th birthday with the win. "The two threes he hit were just huge momentum swings for us. I turned 45, but I feel like I'm 55 after that, because that was just a gut-check win for our team."

For the second time in a row, Oregon came out flat and watched as the Cougars controlled the pace and tempo of the game. Thomas jump-started his team by scoring 12 of the Cougars first 16 points en route to a 20 point night.

Washington State, led by Chris Crosby with 26 points, had every chance to win the game thanks in large part to the 3-point shot. The Cougars hit 10 of 17 threes, opposed to Oregon's dismal three-of-17 performance from beyond the arc.

Despite the troubles, however, the Ducks shot 50 percent from the field and made the crucial plays when they had to.

None more crucial than senior forward A.D. Smith's swooping finger-roll in the key with 36 seconds left. It gave the Ducks their final lead in a game featuring 22 lead-changes.

"Last year we struggled a lot in these close games," Kent said. "This year we're winning them and that's what a year of growth and maturity will do for you."

■ The men play well in Corvallis, while the women open the Pac-10 with two losses

By Matt O'Neill
Oregon Daily Emerald

For the Oregon tennis programs, last weekend's action delivered completely different results.

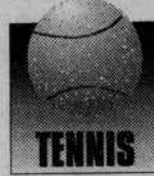

The men enjoyed success at the Corvallis Open, while the women took two losses in conference play, but put up a valiant effort in the Bay Area.

The women opened Pacific Conference play with two losses against top-five teams. The Ducks opened the two-day road trip with a 8-1 loss at the hands of the top-ranked Stanford Cardinal. Head coach Jack Griffin said his team came out tight and he was disappointed with the way they played.

"The pressure should have been on them," Griffin said. "They were the top-ranked program, but we tried to play over our heads and weren't successful."

The Ducks did record one victory against Stanford, when the duo of Sarah Colistro and Monika Gieczys beat a Cardinal pair, 8-6.

Gieczys then used the win in doubles to propel her to a 7-5, 6-3 win over No. 8-ranked Amy Jensen of California. Gieczys' win was one of the bright spots for the Ducks, who bounced back to compete well with the No. 3 Bears before falling, 7-2.

"The win by Monika was huge," Griffin said. "That should put her in the national rankings. She has been on the verge all season, and now she has finally broken through."

The Ducks' other win came when Adeline Arnaud beat Morisa Yang. Griffin was also happy with the way his team bounced back to win some games against the Bears.

"We actually won some matches, it wasn't just moral victories for us," Griffin said.

"The way we bounced back against Cal is a good step for our program."

The men played in Corvallis. Head coach Chris Russell was pleased with his team's effort, as he saw six of his players record first-round victories.

"I was very pleased with the way they played," Russell said. "Those wins give us the confidence and experience to play in match play."

Oregon saw its early success spill over into the second round as five of the Ducks advanced. Freshmen Oded Teig, Leslie Eisinga, and Jason Menke and senior Guillermo Carter won.

Carter, who had a first-round bye, went on to play in the finals, where he fell to Washington's former No. 1 player, Nick Williams, 6-4, 0-6, 6-4. Russell was pleased with Carter's play in his first tournament back after taking the fall off to compete on his own.

"Memo stepped right in there and played great for us," Russell said. "I was pleased with the way he played."

Horoscope by Linda C. Black

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Jan. 24). This year hard work's the secret to your success — and maybe to finding true love, too. Your imagination runs rampant in February. Money runs through your fingers in March. Your curiosity is racing in April, and you're more likely stuck at home in May. Let an expert point you in the right direction in August. Spend so you can save in September. Completion's the name of the game in December.

To get the advantage, check the day's rating: 10 is the easiest day, 0 the most challenging.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Today is an 8 — Somebody likes you. He or she will make it easier for you to advance in your career. The work has to be done perfectly, too, of course. Do that, and everybody will be satisfied.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Today is a 7 — You are lucky in love, and you will be for several weeks. You could be lucky with games, too. It may be hard to say what's on your mind, but that's OK. You might not have to say a thing!

GEMINI (May 21-June 21) — Today is a 7 — Finish firming up a partnership. After that's done, the next assignment is to manage your money wisely. It'll be easier to see how once you're sure who's on your side.

CANCER (June 22-July 22) — Today is a 7 — What investments should you make to get the best return? Where can you cut costs and increase your income? You could almost write a book on this subject, but today reading one's the smarter move.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Today is a 7 — You can figure out what other people need. That's the easy part. Providing it is the challenge. It's supposed to be the way to become successful in business, though, so give it a try.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Today is a 7 —

You're getting luckier. You've got an underlying sense of security and confidence. Even if things don't appear to be going your way, you know otherwise. Well, your attitude helps, too.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Today is a 8 — You should have the opportunity to do some interesting things around your home for the next few weeks. Are you having company over? If not, why not? People love your parties, so don't hold back! Get lavish!

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21) — Today is a 6 — If you're looking for love, try taking a class. Not only will you learn something, you may also find a person you'd like to get to know better. Meanwhile, reschedule a boring task for later.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) — Today is a 7 — You're probably noticing it's easier to accomplish what you want. Now that you have the confidence, go after the money. Making friends is easy, but closing the sale can be a challenge. Go for it.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Today is a 7 — How long has it been since you took a road trip? You may be sick and tired of the same old dull routine. Could you get away for just the evening? Visit dear friends, and you'll feel rejuvenated.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) — Today is a 7 — You're a powerful person. You love coming up with the good ideas, but selling them can be a struggle. Take care of business now and save yourself some trouble later.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) — Today is a 6 — You're scurrying about, trying to figure out exactly what to do, without much room for slack. Your friends are there to help if you need them. Don't worry if you can't get everything done now. You'll have time for more tomorrow.
