

MASTER OF ARTS IN TEACHING

The Master of Arts in Teaching program at George Fox University is an initial teaching licensure program blending professional education and hands-on experience.

This uniquely designed program offers you a choice of two tracks:

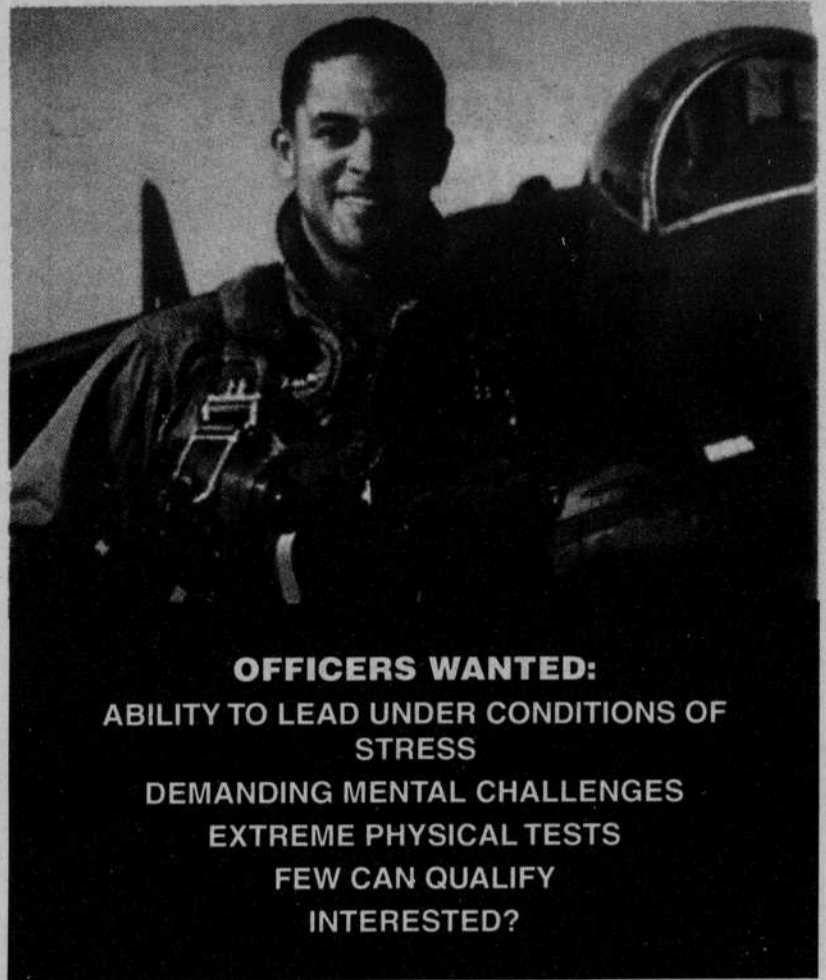

- An 11-month full-time program beginning each June. Application deadline is February 1.
- A 20-month part-time evening and weekend program beginning each September. Application deadline is June 1.

Please call or e-mail for a brochure, application, or more information.
