Juniors, Seniors Sign Up February 7 For Local Spring Term Internships

University of Oregon Juniors and Seniors interested in a local Spring Term internship can sign up for interviews at the Orientation Meeting, 3:30-4:50 p.m. Feb. 7 in the Ben Linder Room in the Erb Memorial Union.

Applicants must be in good academic standing to be eligible for an internship with a local firm or organization participating in the Career Center's Career Development Internship Program (CDIP). Each eligible application can sign up for a maximum of two interviews.

"Sign-ups will be on a first-come, first-serve bases," said Jen White, CDIP Coordinator. She encourages students to come early.

At the CDIP Orientation meeting, students will get an overview of the program, internship requirements, sign-up procedures and interview information as well as an opportunity to sign up for two interviews.

At the Orientation Meeting students will fill out at CDIP Intern Application Form, which will make them eligible to interview with the participating firms. A student may not interview without attending an orientation.

Three make-up Orientation Meetings are scheduled. Students may sign-up for remaining openings at the make-up meetings or can meet individually with a CDIP adviser.

All make-up orientation meetings will be held in Room 12, Hendricks Hall.

The last day for sign-ups is before 9:00 a.m. Friday, Feb. 18.

The Make-up Orientation Meeting Schedule follows:

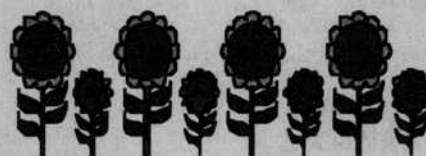

- 3:30-4:30 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 10
- 12:30-1:30 p.m., Tuesday, Feb. 15
- 10:00-11:00 a.m., Friday, Feb. 18

Employers will select their Spring Term interns after they've completed the interviews.
