■ Oregon uses an electrifying second-half run to escape being swept by the Arizona schools at home

Well, Oregon sure made it exciting.

Maybe a little too much so.

First the Ducks allowed Arizona State (11-8 overall, 4-5 Pacific-10 Conference) a 34-26 halftime lead.

Then when Oregon returned to the court, it let a few more anxious minutes pass, falling further behind, 39-26, in front of 4,569 at McArthur Court on Sunday afternoon.

It was starting to seem rather plausible that Oregon (15-6, 6-3) could suffer a

Kourtney Shreve? Ducks believe!

■ Freshman guard Kourtney Shreve had a breakout performance, scoring 10 points during the Ducks' critical run Threatening a repeat of Friday's letdown loss to Arizona, Oregon head coach Jody Runge reached deep into her deck and gambled with her freshman guard from Albany.

Runge wanted an emotional spark; someone who could bring the Ducks back from a 13-point second-half deficit. But Runge didn't get a spark from Kourtney Shreve. She got "a microwave."

Shreve's quickness, hustle and do-or-die shots sped up the rotation of everyone wearing green — but most importantly, it flamed an Oregon offense that trailed

■ Oregon heats up at Arizona State with the Ducks' 86-73 win in the desert

Whose House? The Ducks' House.

Oregon ran Arizona State out of its own gym and put the clamps on Sun Devils' sharpshooter Eddie House in a 86-73 victory Saturday at Wells Fargo Arena in Tempe, Ariz.

Arizona State was no match for the Ducks on a night when Oregon (16-4 overall, 7-2 Pacific-10 Conference) shot 50 percent from the field and nailed 30 of its 39 free throws.

"It was just a great team effort," Oregon head coach Ernie Kent said. "We shot the ball well and we kept our focus. They played like a top team in this country, let alone this conference. I'm very proud of them to get through this first half of the season at 7-2."

The Ducks had three players in double figures and three more within a point or two of that mark. Alex Scales scored 17 points and Frederick Jones had 14. And forward A.D. Smith had vintage game, finishing with 20 points and 12 rebounds.

Following the win, Smith was humble about his performance.

"I really didn't shoot the ball as well as you might say I did," said Smith, who was 7 of 17 from the field. "But to get the double-double is good and to get the win is better."

The Ducks came out strong, securing a 33-23 halftime lead. If Sun Devils' head coach Rob Evans was hoping a disappointing first half would light a fire, he was in for a big disappointment.
