know what's behind the numbers," DeAlbuquerque said.

ASUO Vice President Mitra Anoushiravani also pointed out what she sees as discrepancies in the allocation process.

"The MCC budget went without a fight, yet the ISA was forced to jump through hoops and still didn't get their request," Anoushiravani said.

DeAlbuquerque also believes the PFC offered different treatment to student groups. "I think it's wonderful that the MCC received their new position, but when our own request was for such a small amount, why didn't we get the same consideration?" he said.

Since the dust has settled, several student groups are now left with less financial resources to maintain the programs they feel are essential to nurturing diversity and student involvement at the University.

ISA member James Phippen doesn't question the process but contemplates its ramifications.

"I think they are doing a good job. However, our group has been promoting diversity on campus for 37 years. With all the talk about increasing diversity at the University, you have to look at what we've already done and what we are offering for the future, not just numbers," he said.

Call for Nominations for Faculty Awards for Distinguished Teaching

Deadline for Nominations: MARCH 1, 2000

Faculty, staff, students, and alumni are invited to submit nominations for any faculty members, tenure or non-tenure related, who have taught at the University of Oregon for a minimum of two (2) years. The Ersted Award and Thomas F. Herman Award are presented annually at Spring Commencement to University of Oregon faculty members for distinguished teaching. Each award will be accompanied by a recurring monetary award. [Please note that Graduate Teaching Fellows have their own competition and are ineligible for these awards.]

Eligibility for Awards

Ersted Award for Distinguished Teaching

The late Mr. A. J. Ersted established the Ersted Award for Distinguished Teaching so the University of Oregon could annually honor faculty members "who have taught comparatively short periods and have demonstrated exceptional abilities to induce students to reason and not merely memorize." The Ersted Award is presented only to faculty who are early in their teaching careers. This teaching may occur at the undergraduate or graduate level.

Thomas F. Herman Faculty Achievement Award for Distinguished Teaching

This award honors senior faculty members who have achieved outstanding records as teachers. The Thomas F. Herman Award is presented only to faculty members who have academic rank at the University of Oregon for at least seven years, and who have demonstrated long-standing excellence in teaching and have contributed significantly to student learning at the undergraduate or graduate level.

Nominations will be accepted either through submissions of the following form or by e-mail. If your nomination is by e-mail, please make sure that you include all the information contained on this form.
