

All You Can Eat Pie
for $2.00

Pi Beta Phi
Pie Social

February 17th
7pm-9pm

at Pi Beta Phi
1518 Kincaid

All proceeds go to
Links to Literacy

For more info call Katie at 485-2148

Basketball

continued from page 11

minutes, 59 seconds left.

When the dust settled and the whistles ceased, the Ducks finished on top, 75-63. It was another must-win for Oregon in terms of the Pac-10 title race, made even sweeter by No. 20 UCLA's 73-69 loss to Southern California.

"They gave us a good basketball game," Runge said. "We tried in the first half to play a lot of people, which throws you out of rhythm a little bit."

Oregon nearly broke the game open when it took a 50-39 lead off of Angelina Wolvert's tip-in with 11:05 remaining, but Cal outscored the Ducks 17-9 in the next five minutes, six seconds to pull within 59-56.

Then it was all Oregon. Guard Nicole Strange hit a jumper on the next possession, and point guard Shaquala Williams drained a three-pointer after a Bear was called for traveling. Cal never got within seven after that.

Forward Brianne Meharry suggested that there was some degree of emotional letdown from Thursday's 61-57 win over Stanford, but she attributed much of the Bears' success to their effort on the court.

"Any win right now is a good win, and we won it," Meharry said. "I was really glad that Cal came out and gave it all they had like that because I know personally it's hard to come back from a loss like they had at Oregon State."

Center Jenny Mowe went to the bench after suffering a sprained jaw from an inadvertent elbow in the jaw from teammate Angelina Wolvert. She returned but fouled out with 4:06 to go.

Guard Lindsey Dion left the game and did not return. Team officials first suspected a knee injury, but said on Sunday that nothing was seriously wrong.

Strange was super from the field, leading Oregon with 17 points on 7-of-10 shooting, and Williams contributed eight points and a game-high five assists.

"Before the game, I told everyone 'this is the last time you're ever going to play Cal this year,' which is the last time I'm ever going to play Cal," said Strange, the team's only senior. "It's hard for our team to get up for a game that we've won in the past. We need to work on that."

Oregon found playing time for all of its post players. To the surprise of the 5,311 in attendance, it was sophomore Ndidi Unaka who stole the show with 10 points, including eight in the first half.

"This week at practice I practiced really well, so I'm glad I came out and was able to help my team," Unaka said. "I'm glad we won because [Cal] really came out strong. We didn't play great, but we came to win."

Meharry led all post players with 16 points, half of which came from the free-throw line, where the Ducks nearly tripled the Bears' attempts, 29-11.

50¢ OFF
Any Yogurt*

(*Except small cones and tinsies. Expires 2/28/00)

Campus SUBSHOP
Mon.-Fri. 10am-10pm
Sat. 11am-9pm
Sun. 12pm-9pm
1225 Alder
345-2434
Not valid with any other discounts or coupons. One coupon per customer.

HONEY HILL FARMS

A
romantic evening calls for a perfect bottle of wine. Candlelight, soft music, that sick-to-your-stomach, first-real-date feeling. Ah, yes. Romance. You've planned the perfect night. Gone over every situation. You know what to say, how to act, even how to cook the chicken. And then, as you pour the last glass of wine it hits you! What do I do with the empty bottle? And just when you decide to give up dating forever, your date asks you,

"Where's the recycling bin?"
You think to yourself, this could be love.

Sponsored by U of O Environmental Issues Committee

Swanson
continued from page 11

comes in representing a change of pace, change of style.

It's a difficult match up for any Pac-10 team, and especially for ailing and undersized Cal (7-14, 2-9). It would've been admirable if Jackson and Ashbaugh could even hang with those four.

But then Ndidi Unaka got up in there too.

Who? Yeah, here we go again. It wouldn't be a weekend without another yet-unheralded Duck rising to the occasion.

Ndidi (pronounced dee-dee) Unaka (ew-knock-ah) — better sound it out, because after her play Saturday, you might start seeing that name regularly.

"She's gonna be a superstar here," senior Nicole Strange said. Unaka had played in just nine games this season, averaging less than one minute per contest.

But against the Bears, she subbed in at the 13-minute mark and performed like she always does — at practice. And unlike she ever has in a game.

During her first trip down the floor, she skied above everyone for the rebound, came down and skied again for an easy layin.

Not many women around who can guard that.

"Yeah, especially after I hit my first shot, I did feel good to be out there and finally show what I can do," Unaka said.

She called for the ball and her teammates hooked her up. The Duck with the 27-inch vertical did what she should, simply jumping over defenders for layins.

She played 12 minutes and scored 10 points, both career highs, and may have added another dimension to Oregon's stellar arsenal inside.

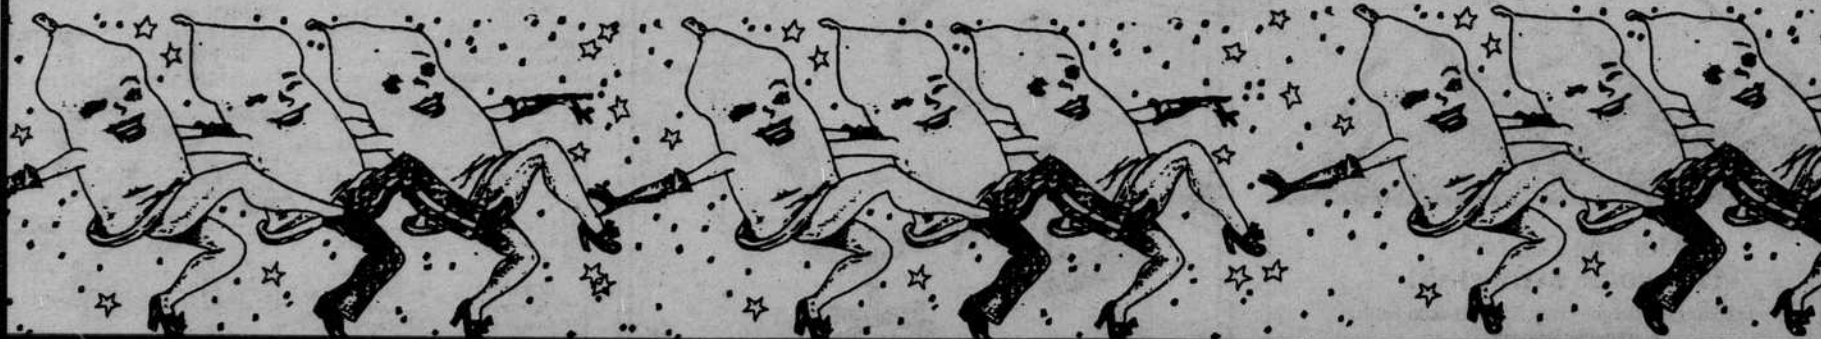

Make it Happen!
Health Education Program

National Condom Day Celebration

February 14, 2000

12:00-3:00 p.m. at the EMU lobby

Come join the celebrations for National Condom Day!
There will be information tables, condom contests and prizes. We'll supply the lubricant. Don't miss it!

For more information, call 346-4456 or check out <http://healthed.uoregon.edu>

UNIVERSITY
HEALTH CENTER
We're a matter of degrees