tie for 15th.

Oregon capitalized on the relative weakness of the field at the Lady Aztec. California and No. 31 Baylor were the only ranked teams at the tournament other than Oregon. Baylor had the final round's best score, but finished behind the Ducks by seven strokes.

The women have just one tour-namment remaining before they host the Pacific-10 Championships at the Eugene Country Club April 24 through 26. The Ducks could be among the favorites to win the Pac-10, although they will face stiff competition from No. 1 Arizona, No. 3 Southern California and No. 4 Arizona State.

Oregon will travel to Tempe, Ariz. for the Ping/Arizona State Invitational to be held at the Karsten Golf Course April 7 through 9.
