Entertainment brief

Improv group offers workshop for women

Life Is An Improv, a business that offers workshops using improvisation techniques and games, presents A Playshop for Women, Mondays in April. This four-week series with WYMPROV's Enid Lefton provides a safe and supportive environment for women to learn to laugh, say yes to creativity, build self-confidence, improve self-esteem, relax and just have some fun.

The presenter, Enid Lefton, has been studying improvisational theater for more than 10 years. Since 1991, she has been performing with the Eugene-based improvisational comedy troupe WYMPROV! She has also spent the last 15 years in business management, mostly in the high-tech industry. Combining her extensive business with improvisation skills, she offers workshops about humor, communications, team-building, stress management and building self confidence.

A Playshop for Women will take place on Wednesdays, April 3, 10, 17, and 24 from 7 to 9 p.m. at Buffalo Gals, which is located at 455 W First, in Eugene. To register, call 345-2067 or e-mail enidl@rio.com. For more information, visit the Life Is An Improv Web site at www.rio.com/~enidl.
