A & E brief

Flutists to perform

Flute players ranging in age from middle school students to senior citizens will perform April 12 during the free weekly MusEvenings! program at the University of Oregon Museum of Art, 1430 Johnson Lane.

Elisha Witt, a Museum of Art teen docent, arranged the flutist' performance, scheduled for 6 p.m.

The Museum of Art is open from noon to 8 p.m. Wednesday and from noon to 5 p.m. Thursday through Sunday. Suggested admission is $3, except on Wednesday evenings, when the MusEvenings! program offers free extended viewing hours from 5 to 8 p.m. Museum members, students, University employees and children are admitted free. For more information, call 346-3027.

Toastmasters offer workshop

Students are invited to a public speaking workshop presented by the Eugene Toastmasters from 5 to 6:30 p.m. today in Room 133 Gilbert Hall.

The workshop will offer students tips for improving their public speaking skills. For more information, call David Hall at 684-0035.
