Junior Triawn Custer's second double of the day drove in a run and kept Oregon's big inning going in the second game of Wednesday's double header against Hawaii.

in the first game, accounting for seven of the Wahine's nine runs.

"We knew that she was a good hitter," Gamez said. "It wasn't a surprise to us, we just couldn't contain her in the first game."

Degen provided the big blast for Hawaii in the top of the fourth inning when she hit a grand slam that bounced off the top of the fence in dead-center for her fifth of the year.

Oregon starter Connie McMurren (12-13) loaded the bases with no outs before Degen went yard. There was a questionable call right before the grand slam as McMurren got Joyce Lum to ground to Lindsey Welch at third who tried to force the runner out at third. But the Ducks didn't get the call, and the runner was safe.

The Wahine added two more runs in the top of the fifth, scoring on one hit and an error.

Degen got to Danielle Haag, the second Oregon pitcher of the game, in the top of the seventh with a three-run blast.

Sophomore Missy Coe put the Ducks on the board in the first inning with a two-run dinger, the 18th of her career.

Trailing 4-2 in the fifth, Oregon closed the gap to within one by scoring three runs in the fifth. A hit and two walks loaded the bases for a two-out rally. Triawn Custer drew the third free pass of the inning to force home a run. Lindsey Welch followed with a base hit to score two runs, but Custer was caught off second to end the inning.

"We were relaxed in the first game," Gamez said. "We had only two hits up to the fifth inning, we didn't swing the bats very well."
