"We hung in there today," Heuser said. "If we can post another four good scores tomorrow I think we have a chance of doing really well."

With all the jockeying that took place Tuesday, the Ducks find themselves within a mere seven strokes of second place. Considering that Oregon gained 11 strokes Tuesday, second place isn't out of the question.

"We're going to go out and do the best job we possibly can," Baumgartner said about resuming play today. "I think we could have our best finish ever."

In 13 tries, the women have never placed higher than fourth at the Pac-10 Championships.

Everything worked in the Ducks' favor Tuesday to make the race as close as it was. California shot a 312 Tuesday, 11 strokes worse than their first-round score, and dropped to seventh overall. USC topped that, shooting an abysmal 18 strokes over their first round score to drop from first to third. The Women of Troy are now only three strokes ahead of Oregon.

Arizona was one of those teams that held their ground on Tuesday, and the No. 1 Wildcats now lead the tournament by five strokes over UCLA.

Arizona head coach Todd McCorkle commented on the difficulty of the Eugene Country Club.

"Mentally this is a very tough course to play," he said. "A lot of bad things can happen out there."

Obviously, other teams had much more trouble on the tricky layout of the course than the Wildcats.

« We're going to go out and do the best job we possibly can. I think we could have our best finish ever.

Renee Baumgartner head coach »

Besides Cal and USC, Washington State had the most dramatic difference in the second round, shooting 17 strokes better than Monday. The Cougars still managed to finish in last place.

The surprise of the tournament remains the poor play of No. 4 Arizona State. The Sun Devils, despite a strong second round, are in sixth, seven strokes behind the fifth-place Ducks.

The women conclude the 54-hole tournament today at the Eugene Country Club. Oregon tees off at 10:06 a.m.

Senior co-captain Pam Sowden was tied for 15th after two rounds at the Pac-10 Championships. Kevin Calame Emerald

Horoscope by Linda C. Black

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (April 26). At first, a dream seems impossible, but don't give up. Later, a surprising development leads to success. Harsh reality puts a damper on your plans in May. Luckily, you're tough enough to try again, and again, and again, through April. New information is encouraging in July. Let romance distract you in September, then back to work in October. A setback stalls you in November, but a lucky break sparkles your December. By February, you'll have proven your strength, so relax in March. Let a feisty woman coach you all year long.

To get the advantage, check the day's rating: 10 is the easiest day, 0 the most challenging.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Today is a 6 — Expect some sort of conflict regarding money. You want to launch into a new endeavor, but take care. Don't go with the first option you're offered. It'll be way too expensive. To be successful, start by being practical.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Today is a 4 — You may worry that you won't be able to achieve your dreams. Then, you're sure you can. Then, it looks impossible again. Well, maybe all the cards aren't on the table yet. A surprising development could make all the difference.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21) — Today is a 6 — You're eager to try something new, but it's not happening yet. This is not a permanent condition; you'll see. Talk your plans over with a friend, and you'll solve some of your problems. Others seem to be simply a matter of time.

CANCER (June 22-July 22) — Today is a 5 — Other people's money plays an important part in your life today. That includes your investments and savings. Bet on your hard work. You'll make more from that than any gamble you might take. Look for a service you can provide.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Today is a 7 — People are fixed in their ways now, and they won't want to compromise. If anybody can talk them into it, you can. Be cheerful and upbeat, and your attitude could be catching — eventually. In the meantime, practice being patient.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Today is a 7 — You're not the only one who's having difficulties. Many people are having a worse time than you are, actually. Your work keeps getting in the way of your play. It's not a good day to travel anyway, so shelve those plans until later.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Today is a 6 — You could have a fabulous conversation with a person you find attractive. That's something nice, to which you can look forward. Meanwhile, avoid hassles by sticking to your schedule. Don't get off track, or you could mess up a good deal.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21) — Today is a 5 — You could run into arguments every step of the way. A partner or expert may be pushing you around. Unfortunately, he or she may be right. Instead of feeling boxed in, look for another source of income. That cloud you're under has a silver lining.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) — Today is a 6 — Expect a busy workday. The challenge is to keep everything under control. That may not be possible today, as you're learning a new skill. Watch out; you could trip over something that you didn't know was there.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Today is a 6 — Does a loved one want something that's too expensive? If so, don't feel guilty as you just say "no." That can be the most loving thing you can do, sometimes. The next most loving thing is to steer that person toward a good job.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) — Today is a 5 — A hassle could arise today, so watch out for it. What you want and what you can do appear to be two different things. This doesn't have to bum you out; it could inspire you to learn new skills. You're good at that, remember?

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) — Today is a 6 — Your hopes, dreams and fantasies appear to be out of reach. You may feel awkward and even stupid, but actually, that's not true. You're in an intense learning phase. Part of learning is not knowing. It's natural. Stick with your studies.
