crew to consult the rule book. Upon further review, the umpires ordered the runner back to third.

"The rule is any backward movement, it doesn't have to be a step, just any movement at all," Gamez said. "You just read up on the rules and every now and then one of these rules will come up."

Once the dust had settled, McMurren and the Ducks still had two runners on base with only one out. McMurren kept momentum with the Ducks by getting the next two Wildcats to fly out.

Oregon loaded the bases in the bottom of the seventh for the second day in a row. But the Ducks were unable to get the tying run home.

Saturday's contest featured a pitcher's battle. Freshman Andrea Vidlund (16-5) threw seven strong innings of three-hit ball, only to lose 2-0.

The game remained 1-0 until the top of the seventh, when, with a runner on second, Andrade delivered a run-scoring single right back up the middle to drive in Arizona's second run.

"Andrea's performance showed how much she's stepped up her game both mentally and physically," Gamez said. "That's important — especially down the stretch."

The Ducks loaded the bases in the bottom of the seventh with only one out. But Wildcat starter Jennie Finch shut the door by getting the next two outs to preserve the win.

Oregon opened the weekend with an upset of No. 4 Arizona State. Senior Jill Robinson scored the only run of the game with her 31st home run of her career to deep left field.

"Right when I hit the ball I knew it, it just had that pure feeling," Robinson said. "It feels good to tie the record."

Jill Robinson's 31st career home run in Friday's win tied the Oregon record. Kevin Calame Emerald
