Author Event

Ianthe Brautigan

Tuesday, May 16th • 7:30 P.M.
Knight Library Browsing Room

You Can't Catch Death, a biography of her father Richard Brautigan, is the debut work of Ianthe Brautigan. She will be with us to read from and discuss this beautifully evoked, intimate portrait of her father's tragic life. One of the year's most powerful memoirs, St. Martin's Press is publishing You Can't Catch Death simultaneously with Richard Brautigan's final, never-published novel, An Unfortunate Woman. A booksigning will follow.

UO Author Signing

Steven Shankman & Stephen Durrant

Wednesday, May 17th • 12:00-2:00 P.M. • Upstairs

UO Professors Steven Shankman and Stephen Durrant will sign copies of their coauthored book, The Siren and the Sage: Knowledge & Wisdom in Ancient Greece & China. Steven Shankman is Distinguished Professor of English and Classics and Director of the Oregon Humanities Center. Stephen Durrant is Professor of East Asian Languages & Letters and Director of the Center for Asian & Pacific Studies.
