The Fifth Street Public Market has a wide variety of shopping selections. With 34 stores, two restaurants, and 10 cafés, the market is an eclectic mix of retail, boutiques, cafés and restaurants. It is also home to a Nike store and Wunderland Electric Castle video arcade.

The market's directory features retail stores including Mindy's Needlepoint, Paper Traders, Rhythm & Blooms, Twist (Clay-trade) and Uncommon Scents.

With 140 stores, the Valley River Center has plenty to keep the family busy this weekend.

"We are the largest shopping center between Portland and San Francisco," said Makia Lucier, a 1997 University graduate who now works in marketing for VRC.

On Saturday, Valley River Center hosts a fund raiser to benefit Willamette Science and Tech Center (WISTEC), a local museum. The exhibit is called "Take a Seat for Science," and local artists are donating chairs that will be displayed throughout the mall and auctioned to raise money for WISTEC.

For more information, call 683-5513. VRC's weekend hours are 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sunday.

Students can take advantage of all that the area has to offer by exploring some of the shops downtown, or checking out the Gateway Mall.

Located at 3000 Gateway St. in Springfield, the mall has three department stores and more than 70 shops, according to Eugene.com.

The mall includes shops that specialize in fashion, home furnishings, gifts, electronics and services. It is open from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. during the week and from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday.
