

Your Community Bookstore

Non profit. Owned by students, faculty and staff. Governed by students, faculty and staff. That's your bookstore. And that's what makes our relationship with you unique. We're not just another business. We're a partner in your education from orientation through graduation.

Our sole purpose has been to meet your needs at the University of Oregon. From 1916 when the first bookstore was organized until the present; student, faculty and staff needs have changed. We're able to meet these changes through your suggestions and support, along with the creativity of our employees.

Every year we're challenged to go farther, be better. We hope to challenge you to keep telling us what you need—to keep shopping here. The more you use us, the more we can return to you. Money spent here, beyond our operational needs, comes back—not to us, but to you in book and product savings. That's our unique partnership!

Did you know:

We have some of the lowest prices on coursebooks in the country for college bookstores? And did you know that we offer a 10% discount on all books EVERYDAY to current UO students, faculty and staff?

We have sportswear and gifts to satisfy even the most intense die hard Duck fans. Shop in the Bookstore, stop at the Duck Shopin at the Mo' Center, the Portland Center, visit the kiosk at Valley River Center or surf our online catalog.

We're also an art store and a school and office supply store? That's right. Artists will find a full rainbow of selection. Paints, paper, pens, pastels, you name it.

The Digital Duck is our new computer and imaging center with a large selection of computers, printers, monitors, and software! We carry all the goodies that make the bookstore a one stop shopping experience. Paper, ink cartridges, speakers, disks, and anything else you can think of. Still want more? How about cell phones, pagers, and photo processing. And don't forget our educational discount on software!
