

Mets continue to amaze, take two on the road

By Ben Walker
The Associated Press

ST. LOUIS — Once Rick Ankiel zinged the first pitch of the game to the backstop, it was bound to be a wild one at Busch Stadium. And it was, with the New York Mets again finding a way to win at the end.

With Ankiel out of control, the Mets took control of the NL championship series. Jay Payton hit an RBI single in the ninth inning and New York beat the St. Louis Cardinals 6-5 Thursday night for a 2-0 lead.

The Mets won for the fifth straight time in this postseason, with three of them coming in their final at-bat.

And this one was helped by an error from a first baseman. Sound familiar?

"It's amazing, but we keep coming back," Mets pitcher Al Leiter said. "That's kind of been the way we're playing, very resilient."

An error by first baseman Will Clark on Robin Ventura's two-hop grounder set up Benny Agbayani's first sacrifice bunt of the season. Payton followed with a single off losing pitcher Mike Timlin. Clark's misplay did not rival Bill Buckner's error in Game 6 of the 1986 World Series, but the result was the same: Mets win.

"It's a very, very tough loss," Cardinals manager Tony La Russa said.

New York now returns to Shea Stadium for Game 3 Saturday, sending Rick Reed to pitch against Andy Benes.

The Mets' victory also kept them on track for a Subway Series, meaning they may not have to leave New York for the rest of the year. The Yankees and Seattle are tied at one game each in the ALCS.

Turk Wendell wound up with the win and Armando Benitez pitched the ninth for a save in a game that lasted one minute short of four hours. Leiter got a no-decision, leaving him winless in nine postseason starts.

Timo Perez's mad dash around the bases helped New York take a two-run lead in the eighth.

The Mets' late-season sparkplug singled with two outs, took off on Matt Morris' full-count pitch and hustled home when Edgardo Alfonzo hit a soft single into the no man's land of shallow right-center field. Todd Zeile greeted reliever Dave Veres with an RBI single for a 5-3 lead.

The Cardinals came back to tie it in the bottom half, with a run scoring on John Franco's wild pitch and another on pinch-hitter J.D. Drew's double. After pinch-hitter Mark McGwire was intentionally walked, Wendell struck out Craig Paquette to end the inning.

Bad omens abounded for Ankiel even before he took the mound. There was a full moon above the ballpark and former St. Louis star shortstop Ozzie Smith bounced the ceremonial first pitch.

Then Ankiel suffered a meltdown, the same kind that saw the 21-year-old rookie throw a record five wild pitches in an inning last week in Game 1 against Atlanta.

Ankiel was mercifully pulled after getting only two outs in the first inning. He seemed to be biting his lip as he walked off to sympathetic applause, with fans no doubt wondering whether he had caught the same wildness disease that derailed Mark Wohlers and Steve Blass.

Both teams sported new lineups for Game 2. Mets shortstop Mike Bordick, hit by a pitch in the right thumb a day earlier, did not start while Fernando Tatis, Shawon Dunston, Ray Lankford and Eli Marrero started for St. Louis.

Mike Piazza hit his third career postseason homer, a solo shot off rookie Britt Reames that put the Mets ahead 3-1 in the third. In the fifth, the Cardinals came back to tie it behind Edgar Renteria's hitting and Ankiel's cheerleading.

Renteria, who had three hits and stole three bases, got it going by grounding an RBI double into the left-field corner. Ankiel led the shouting in the dugout, pumping his fist for emphasis.

The sellout crowd of 52,250 included Republican vice presidential nominee Dick Cheney, who spent the day campaigning in the Midwest.

"I just wanted to come and watch the ballgame," he said.

Horoscope by Linda C. Black

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Oct. 13). A battle's going on between your passive and assertive sides. What emerges is a more practical, secure you. A crazy scheme could work in October. The money's there, so ask in November. New developments spark interest in December. Love takes top priority in February. Fight with finesse and win in April. Distribute your wealth carefully in May. Travel makes good sense in June. Follow a hunch in July and the money trail in September.

To get the advantage, check the day's rating: 10 is the easiest day, 0 the most challenging.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Today is a 7 — You'll run into opposition today, but just enough to keep things interesting. Toss a few ideas around, and you'll generate more. The action's fast and furious, and you're in the middle. That's where you should be!

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Today is a 5 — The boar's rockin', but you should be able to steer a steady course. Changes are going on, but don't get distracted. Keep aiming straight for your long-term goal, and you'll do fine. And stop worrying, OK?

GEMINI (May 21-June 21) — Today is a 6 — You're the perfect one to keep a spontaneous person balanced. You're creative, too, and that'll come in handy. The game is moving quickly, with lots of surprises. Make modifications now; it'll be more difficult later.

CANCER (June 22-July 22) — Today is a 5 — A difficult situation should ease up. That's the good news. The bad news is that there's still a lot of uncertainty. If you like action, you should enjoy this show. It's hard to tell which way you should go, however. Stay on your toes.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Today is a 6 — If you're expanding your area of influence, you may run into new troubles. This is natural. You should expect it when you're taking new territory. Try not to get flustered. It doesn't do you any good, and it confuses your friends.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Today is a 5 — All heck's breaking loose. If you kept your nose out of trouble and your money hidden in a safe place, you should be fine. Don't a borrower or a lender be, and don't blindly follow the advice of an older or younger person.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) — Today is a 5 — A standoff's in effect. You want one thing, and your partner wants another. It's not so easy to delegate the decision-making this time. You want what you want! Maybe you both should study more before making a major purchase.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) — Today is a 5 — You may feel stuck between a rock and a hard place. But, there's work to be done. Instead of worrying, just do it. Everybody has an opinion about how you should spend this paycheck; don't listen. Hide it away, instead. Then, make some time to think — in private.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) — Today is a 6 — Whoops! What have you done? An argument could make you wonder if you can stand to be in relationships. Maybe you should head for far distant places on your own? Nah, don't run off just yet. In a few days, things will look different.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Today is a 6 — Get your orders straight before you tackle a tough job. Your regular routine may not produce the right results. You don't want to do the whole thing over, so ask. Draw some attention to the task now, and you could save time later.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) — Today is a 7 — They double-booked your flight of fantasy. There may not be room for you! You may have to work harder than you've ever worked before, but that's OK. Put in the effort, and you can turn a potential disaster into a fabulously memorable experience.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) — Today is a 6 — You want to buy beautiful gifts for special people, but you also want to save. What to do? Save wisely, get wealthy, buy gifts. It takes a while, but it sure works better than the other way around.
