

New York to play New York in Series

By Ronald Blum
The Associated Press

NEW YORK — David Justice's home run soared toward the No. 4 train, and New York had its first Subway Series in 44 years.

Fighting off weeks of doubts, the New York Yankees followed the Mets into the World Series, rallying from a four-run deficit to beat the Seattle Mariners 9-7 Tuesday night and win the AL championship series 4-2.

"It's going to be exciting," Yankees manager Joe Torre said. "It's been a long time coming."

Derek Jeter took it a step further: "This city is going to be crazy."

Despite his worst October outing, Orlando Hernandez lasted seven innings and became the first pitcher ever to go 8-0 in post-season play.

With Seattle ahead 4-3 in the seventh inning, Justice lined a pitch from Arthur Rhodes into the right-field upper deck for a three-run homer that earned him the series MVP award.

"We were written off," Justice said. "We stuck together."

Paul O'Neill added a two-run single and Jose Vizcaino, whose infield single started the inning, hit a sacrifice fly for a 9-4 lead.

Alex Rodriguez, in perhaps his

Mariano Rivera relieved and allowed an RBI double to John Olerud, then a two-run double by Mark McLemore that hit off the first base bag as two more runs scored, ending his postseason scoreless streak at 33 1-3 innings over three years.

But Rivera held on in the ninth as the Yankees won their record 37th American League pennant and their third in a row.

Just 24 hours, 38 minutes after Timo Perez caught the final out of the NLCS at Shea Stadium, about 8 miles away, the final out of the Yankees' tense season ended when Edgar Martinez grounded to shortstop with a runner on at 12:17 a.m.

And so a half century after Willie, Mickey and the Duke dominated baseball, it will be Bernie, Benny and El Duque at Yankee Stadium starting Saturday night, the first Subway Series since the Yankees beat the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1956.

Seattle stormed to a 4-0 lead against the two-time defending World Series champions, getting consecutive RBI doubles from Rodriguez and Martinez in the first and a two-run, upper-deck homer from light-hitting Carlos Guillen in the fourth.

But John Halama, a Brooklynite who blanked the Yankees for six innings in Game 2, was chased in the third when Jorge Posada hit a two-run double and O'Neill, fighting the biggest batting slump of his life, singled in a run on the next pitch.

Hernandez and Mariners reliever Brett Tomko both escaped jams in the middle innings, getting defensive help from their All-Star shortstops, Rodriguez for Seattle and Jeter for New York.

And then the game turned in a 39-minute seventh inning — roughly the time it takes to go from Yankee Stadium to Shea, if the change of trains at Grand Central Terminal goes smoothly.

Tomko didn't allow a hit in 2 2-3 innings, but he threw 51 pitches, a high amount for a reliever, and Jose Paniagua relieved to start the seventh.

Vizcaino, one of the seven players on the postseason roster the Yankees added during the season, started the inning with a perfectly placed single in the hole between first and second bases.

Second baseman Mark McLemore got to it, but his throw from the right-field grass was just a little too late.

Chuck Knoblauch sacrificed him to second and Jeter singled just between Rodriguez, his rival and pal who had four of Seattle's 10 hits, and Guillen at third.

Seattle manager Lou Piniella, who like Rodriguez may have spent his final night in a Mariners uniform, then brought in Rhodes.

In Game 2, the Yankees trailed 1-0 and had been shut out for 21 innings when Justice doubled off Rhodes, sparking a seven-run eighth inning that gave New York a 7-1 win and tied the series.

In that game, umpires angered Justice by ruling he didn't check a swing on a 1-1 pitch.

This time, he got the call on a close 2-1 pitch.

Fans were on their feet, and even Mayor Rudolph Giuliani applauded with his glove-covered hands. The upper deck swayed back and forth, and Justice sent the ball on an arc, a no-doubt homer from the moment he hit it.

Justice, a June acquisition from Cleveland, gave double high-fives when he met Jeter and Vizcaino at home plate, more high-fives to Bernie Williams, Tino Martinez and Luis Sojo by the dugout, then slammed his helmet down, adrenaline rushing through his veins.

Horoscope by Linda C. Black

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Oct. 18). Your lesson this year is obedience, and your reward could be vast wealth. Keep smiling to avoid a clash in October. By November you should know how to increase your income. Drop a bad habit in December and let love into your heart in February. Being stingy is great in May. Show your affection through actions in June. Keep opinions to yourself in July and ditto with the information you gather in September.

To get the advantage, check the day's rating: 10 is the easiest day, 0 the most challenging.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Today is a 6 — Money's burning a hole in your pocket, so you could go through a lot of it quickly. Follow a budget you've already set. Don't launch new projects for a while. Pay off old debts before incurring new ones.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Today is a 6 — The more you and a partner talk, the more the truth comes out. Don't worry if your truths don't match. Knowing what the other person thinks is the truth will help you understand each other.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21) — Today is a 6 — Don't worry; getting all the details worked out might take a while. Don't hurry, either. Doing things right is more important. Information gathered today could change your plans, so move slowly. Review what you've already done, too.

CANCER (June 22-July 22) — Today is a 7 — If a loved one is upset, you can help. The people involved should talk things out one on one. That may be hard if they're not speaking to each other. Be patient. Your caring is a precious gift.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Today is a 5 — Somebody at home may have a bone to pick with you. Unfortunately, he or she isn't saying much. You could have a hidden problem in your house. Defrost the fridge and toss out the rotten stuff. Schedule a date with your roommates, to listen.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Today is a 7 —

Have a list and set priorities. Make appointments and confirm them, too. You don't want to race across town and find you've missed somebody by five minutes. The same goes the other way around. If you're delayed, call!

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) — Today is a 5 — An older person may want an accounting soon, so get your ducks into a row. Count the petty cash drawer, too. Be clear about where the money is going. People get nervous when you're spending their money.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) — Today is a 7 — You've never been one to waste words. Mercury's going retrograde in your sign. Careful contemplation and reflection are in order for the next few weeks. You might add to your collection of secrets, too.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) — Today is a 6 — Dig into the pile of work you have stacked up. You know, the one you've been avoiding. Something in that stack could bite you if you don't watch out — hopefully not a spider. More likely, it's a bill that's almost overdue.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Today is an 8 — If you're single and a friend's been trying to arrange a blind date, accept. This could be your connection to a good thing. If you're part of a couple, you'll both have a fabulous time going out with friends.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) — Today is a 7 — The money you've waited for could be delayed. The good news is you get luckier in love. You'll make lots of new friends in the next few weeks. Fun and excitement are in store. Now, meanwhile, back to work.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) — Today is a 7 — Do you have a romantic getaway planned? Think you can't afford that cruise or week at the beach? Well, maybe not now, but spring will be here in no time at all. Start planning and saving so you can give yourself the birthday gift you've always wanted.
