important statistic of the game. That assist was the freshman's 14th of the season, breaking Stanford's single-season mark that was set by Julie Foudy. Foudy is one of the most prolific members of the United States national team.

The Ducks never recovered from Ward's goals Friday night and were shut out for the ninth time in 20 games this season.

Oregon's tenth shutout came Sunday, when the Ducks were able to muster only four shots against California. The Golden Bears struck early, when Lucie Brining put away a Regina Holan cross in the third minute to put California up 1-0. Krysti Whalen scored in the 26th minute to put the game out of reach. Then Kathleen Cain and Lee Ann Mouton scored towards the end of the match to make the final score 4-0.

Oregon couldn't find the back of the net this weekend, and couldn't even find the shots that would create the opportunities. The Ducks were out-shot 33-9 in the two games. Oregon was averaging 14.0 shots per game before the weekend, but shot just five times on Stanford and four times on California.

Sunday, 11 different California players had shots, while just two Oregon players — Julie McLellan and Molly Stemp — recorded scoring opportunities.

Friday against the Cardinal, the Ducks shot twice in the first half, compared with Stanford's nine shots.

The Ducks were unable to upset ranked teams this weekend and didn't play spoiler all season despite a schedule chock-full of top-ranked foes. Oregon played nine top-25 teams in 20 games, and lost all nine of those matches by a combined score of 41-2. On the season, the Ducks scored 21 goals while opponents scored 56.

The one positive the Ducks could take away from the weekend's games — and the season — was the play of goalkeeper Sarah Peters. The goalie is the Pac-10's leader in the saves department, the result of being shot upon all season. If anyone in the conference is battle-tested, it is Peters and her defense.

Ducks soar to sixth in AP

■ The Oregon schools are together in the top-10 polls for the first time since 1964

History has been made.

For the first time ever, the Oregon football team surpassed the Associated Press poll's seventh spot, settling in at No. 6 after scraping by Washington State in overtime Saturday.

Also for the first time since 1964, the Ducks (8-1 overall, 6-0 Pacific-10 Conference) were joined in the top 10 by Oregon State (8-1, 5-1). The Beavers improved to No. 10 after beating California 38-32.

"I think it's great for the state of Oregon, it's great for the University of Oregon and it's great for Oregon State," Oregon head coach Mike Bellotti said in his Sunday conference call. "If we continue to take care of business, then the Civil War could be one of value."

"The final rankings are the ones that count. Rankings between now and then don't mean that much."

Washington advanced to No. 7 after edging Arizona, 35-32, in Tucson.

The Ducks tied their seventh-spot record — set Oct. 27, 1964, after beating Washington 7-0 — this season after beating Southern California on the road. Before then, Oregon hadn't won at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum since 1994, or swept USC and UCLA since 1970.

Now, all of that has happened, and more could be yet to come.

"It feels good that our kids are continuing to find ways to win and are rallying behind each other," Bellotti said. "I still have yet to see a complete game."

It's been a record season for the Ducks, who, after this weekend, have played in eight overtime games, more than any other team in the NCAA. Of those eight games, Oregon has won five of them, and its last three.

There's still room for more history to be made.

Never before have the Ducks had a 10-win season. If Oregon wins out its schedule, then marches down to Pasadena and wins the Rose Bowl, then the school-record nine-win season will be bested by two.

And if Oregon State takes care of business at Arizona this weekend, then Nov. 18 could have all the ingredients of being the greatest Civil War of all time.

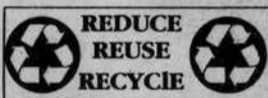

"I believe we can improve, and I think we will improve as a team this week," Bellotti said. "The bottom line is we are 6-0 and 8-1."

Horoscope by Linda C. Black

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Nov. 6). If at first you don't succeed, try another tactic. Don't take a risk with your savings in October or November, either. The money's coming in, but it sure can slip through your fingers fast in December. In February, stick with what you've got, even if it's not what you want. By March you and a loved one will find new options. The old-fashioned ways work best in May, and you might strike it rich from an old well around June. It's a win by July; you've worried enough by then. Count your blessings and give thanks in October. To get the advantage, check the day's rating: 10 is the easiest day, 0 the most challenging.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) - Today is a 5 - Expect confusion and change relating to money. You could experience a financial loss regarding an overseas deal or the purchase of an import. Turn this potential loss into profit by heeding an older person's advice.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) - Today is a 7 - Your plans with friends could go awry. If you're stubborn enough to keep going, you may still achieve your goals. The longer you hang on, the more likely you are to get what you want.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21) - Today is a 5 - You're generally lucky, but don't push your luck now. An annoying co-worker is probably right. Do whatever needs to be done and cooperate with everyone. Share your feelings and stand up for your rights some other time.

CANCER (June 22-July 22) - Today is an 8 - Even though things go wrong for others, you'll land buttered side up. Trust your intuition in a difficult situation. It could help you get around a traffic jam or a log jam, and that could save you lots of time and money.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) - Today is a 6 - You may want something special for your home, but take care. Do a lot of shopping if other people's money is involved. (That includes the bank's.) Everybody's telling you what to do, but you're the one who has to live with your decision.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) - Today is a 7 - Friends might steer you in the right direction, and you need all the help you can get. Should you work more? Spend more? Play or study? Maybe you should forget it all and take a bike tour of Europe. Wanna know what to do? Ask your mom.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct 22) - Today is a 5 - Work interferes with travel today and might even keep you from going to lunch with a dear friend. Do errands another time, too. You should make big bucks, though, and that makes it all worth while.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) - Today is an 8 - If you're worried enough about losing money, you may try to make some, instead. You could turn a tidy profit today, through a combination of skill and luck. Yes, you might have to pull a few strings. You're good at that.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) - Today is a 5 - Your first suggestion may not work, and your second idea could flop, too. Instead of getting depressed, ask for input. A person who's been nagging at you might be right. Let go of foolish pride and do what works.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) - Today is an 8 - This is a hectic day at work. Everybody's trying out new ideas, most of which don't work. Before you waste more time, consult a person who's been here before. Experience pays. Use somebody else's.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) - Today is a 5 - A fool and his or her money are soon parted. Don't let that be you today. Don't make a loan that will never be repaid. Stop pouring money down a hole. It's OK if you end up with some in your pocket. That isn't cheating.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) - Today is a 7 - Everybody may demand a lot from you, but you're not alone. A far-away friend is feeding you helpful information. It's like having your own teleprompter. Don't be scared, even if the stakes are high. The odds are in your favor.
