Larwin, a freshman from Bend, will switch positions with junior Leif Williams at 165 and 174 pounds.

"Luke is very tough and very talented," Kearney said. "His ability to make the transition and adjustment to the college level will determine a lot, but he's somebody that we are looking to wrestle this season."

Arizona.

Senior Michael Kasahun and sophomore Jason Hartmann lead the Duck men. Hartmann became a Regionals individual contender when he placed second at the Pac-10 meet. Kasahun, in 10th place, was not far behind the former Pac-

Other projected starters include four sophomores. Brian Watson will wrestle at 133 pounds, Casey Hunt at 141 pounds, Tony Overstake at 149 pounds and Eric Webb at heavyweight.

The match will be played in the hometown of Doug Lee and Overstake, where a large home contingent will be on hand.

10 newcomer of the year.

Projected entrants for the meet include Hartmann, Kasahun, junior Adam Bergquist, senior Lincoln Nehring and freshmen John Lucas, Brett Holts and Noel Paulson.

The women's 6,000 meter race begins at 10 a.m., followed by the men's 10,000 meter race. The meet will be the first 10,000 meter (6.214 miles) race for the men this season.

first ball kill right away, gain momentum and put them away."

The Ducks were then able to capitalize on four Husky errors to win game three, 16-14, on a Mazza kill.

"I loved the way we handled those big moments. It showed great maturity," Ferreira said. "If you're afraid of these big moments, you're not going to be a good competitor."

The Ducks host Washington State tonight at 7 p.m. in the final home game of the season.

"We're looking for a sweep," said Murphy, who finished the match with six kills and 13 digs.

A win that was so much more

A group of hard-working volleyball players playing their hearts out in front of their faithful fans is always nice to see.

But feeling the energy that bounced off the rafters from the 872 fans (it felt like more) down to the Ducks on the floor was something else.

The game sure didn't look like a match between two Pacific-10 Conference cellar dwellers.

On one side were the Washington Huskies, who battled back from behind in the first game to win 15-11 and take the 1-0 lead.

On the other, there were the always-fighting Ducks, who have persevered through a season in which it would have been easy to roll over and die.

But the only killing taking place on this night came at the hands of Oregon's spike-sensation Monique Tobbagi. Tobbagi was, as ESPN's Dan Patrick would say,

"en fuego." Sometimes she can get a little too excited and send her spikes into the crowd. But on this night, she was money. So money, in fact, that she recorded a career-high 28 kills.

When she gets in that zone, it is recommended to get out of the way as fast as you can.

Tobbagi's kills helped fuel the Ducks to a 15-12 victory in the cause his Ducks tied it up, took the lead and held on for the 16-14 win and the crucial 2-1 lead.

From there, the spirit of the moment helped carry Oregon past its Northwest rival in the fourth game, ensuring its first Pac-10 home victory on the year.

"We knew we should have won when we played them at Washington and we wanted to show that tonight," Tobbagi said.

The Ducks certainly did that, and now they get the opportunity to close out their 2000 home season with a second consecutive win tonight against Washington State.

As you watched the players hug each other after the game, you had to feel good for them. Their record may still only be 10-14 overall, and 2-13 in the Pac-10, but on this one night, none of that mattered.

The Ducks beat the Huskies. The fans, who had been there all season, were rewarded with a win.

And the Oregon volleyball program was given a big confidence boost that it can take with them through the remainder of this season and into the next, as coach Ferreira's journey toward success keeps rolling along.

“We knew we should have won when we played them at Washington and we wanted to show that tonight.”

second game. Then came the always-important third game, in which the teams traded points for awhile before the Huskies took the 14-12 lead.

Timeout, Oregon.

Horoscope by Linda C. Black

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Nov. 10). Looks like a good year to clean house. Something's lost, but more is gained if you do it right. Mum's the word in November. You're in for surprises in December, and a few of them are treasures. It's OK to disrupt things in February; in fact it's necessary. Tell it like it is in May, but listen, too. Something you thought would be there isn't in June. You'll find something better by July. It may not all be done by October, but you're well underway to creating your masterpiece.

To get the advantage, check the day's rating: 10 is the easiest day, 0 the most challenging.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Today is a 6 — The money you'd planned to spend on one thing may be needed for something else. Use your experience, rather than a friend's advice, to figure this one out. Remember a similar situation in your past and do what worked.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Today is a 7 — Things aren't working out as easily as expected. You're determined that you know best, but others aren't easily convinced. Use facts, along with your natural stubbornness. You can win them over to your side.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21) — Today is a 5 — You're too busy to travel, but don't worry. If it hadn't been that, it would have been something else. Reschedule the trip for later. Sunday's your best bet. You can get a lot done through other means — and other people. Delegate.

CANCER (June 22-July 22) — Today is an 8 — You're a generous person, but you don't have to give all your money away. If you hear from another worthy cause, take care. Go through your budget, and only give what you can afford. Put your own home and family first.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Today is a 5 — Every time you turn around, you'll meet with criticism. Everybody has comments on what you should do next, but don't complain. Listen, instead, and take notes. If you do that, they won't repeat themselves as often. That will be a blessing.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Today is a 7 — Don't bother scheduling a luncheon date. You won't have much free time until next week. Put that on your answering machine and then turn off your phone's ringer. That'll give you the peace and quiet you need to concentrate.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) — Today is a 6 — Your sweetheart or partner could be in a tizzy about money, and this makes your life difficult. Work out a budget that you can both live with. You have a broader perspective right now. Your friend can't see outside the box.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) — Today is a 7 — A roommate has plans for this weekend that involve you and your home. Are you launching into a new project? Better not to invite friends over for dinner until at least Sunday. There's liable to be too big a mess before then.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) — Today is a 5 — Something you're trying at work could fall flat. You may have received faulty information. Conditions will be better for fixing things next week. Try not to get stressed over something that's not working right. Deep breaths, OK?

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Today is an 8 — Buying nice gifts for the people you love is one of your favorite things to do. But, are you being realistic? Overspending isn't a good way to show somebody you care. It doesn't work all that well. Think of something else.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) — Today is a 5 — Something isn't going well at home. It's upsetting and may have you confused. Don't be too hard on yourself. An older person can help. That person may have been trying to tell you what to do for ages. Just do it and stop arguing.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) — Today is an 8 — You're strong, while others are having all sorts of problems. They're liable to come to you for help making decisions. Advise them to go over the material one more time. They'll solve their own problems, and you'll look wise.
