

INTERESTED IN LAW SCHOOL?

PSU LAW SCHOOL FAIR

Tuesday, November 14, 2000
10:00 am - 2:00 pm free admission

Meet admissions representatives from fifty law schools from around the nation!

DAYS INN CITY CENTER
1414 W SIXTH AVENUE, PORTLAND

Sponsored by PSU Pre-Law Society, Western Association of Pre-Law Advisors, PSU History Department and PSU College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

QUESTIONS? Call 503-725-3917 Website: www.history.pdx.edu/prelaw/

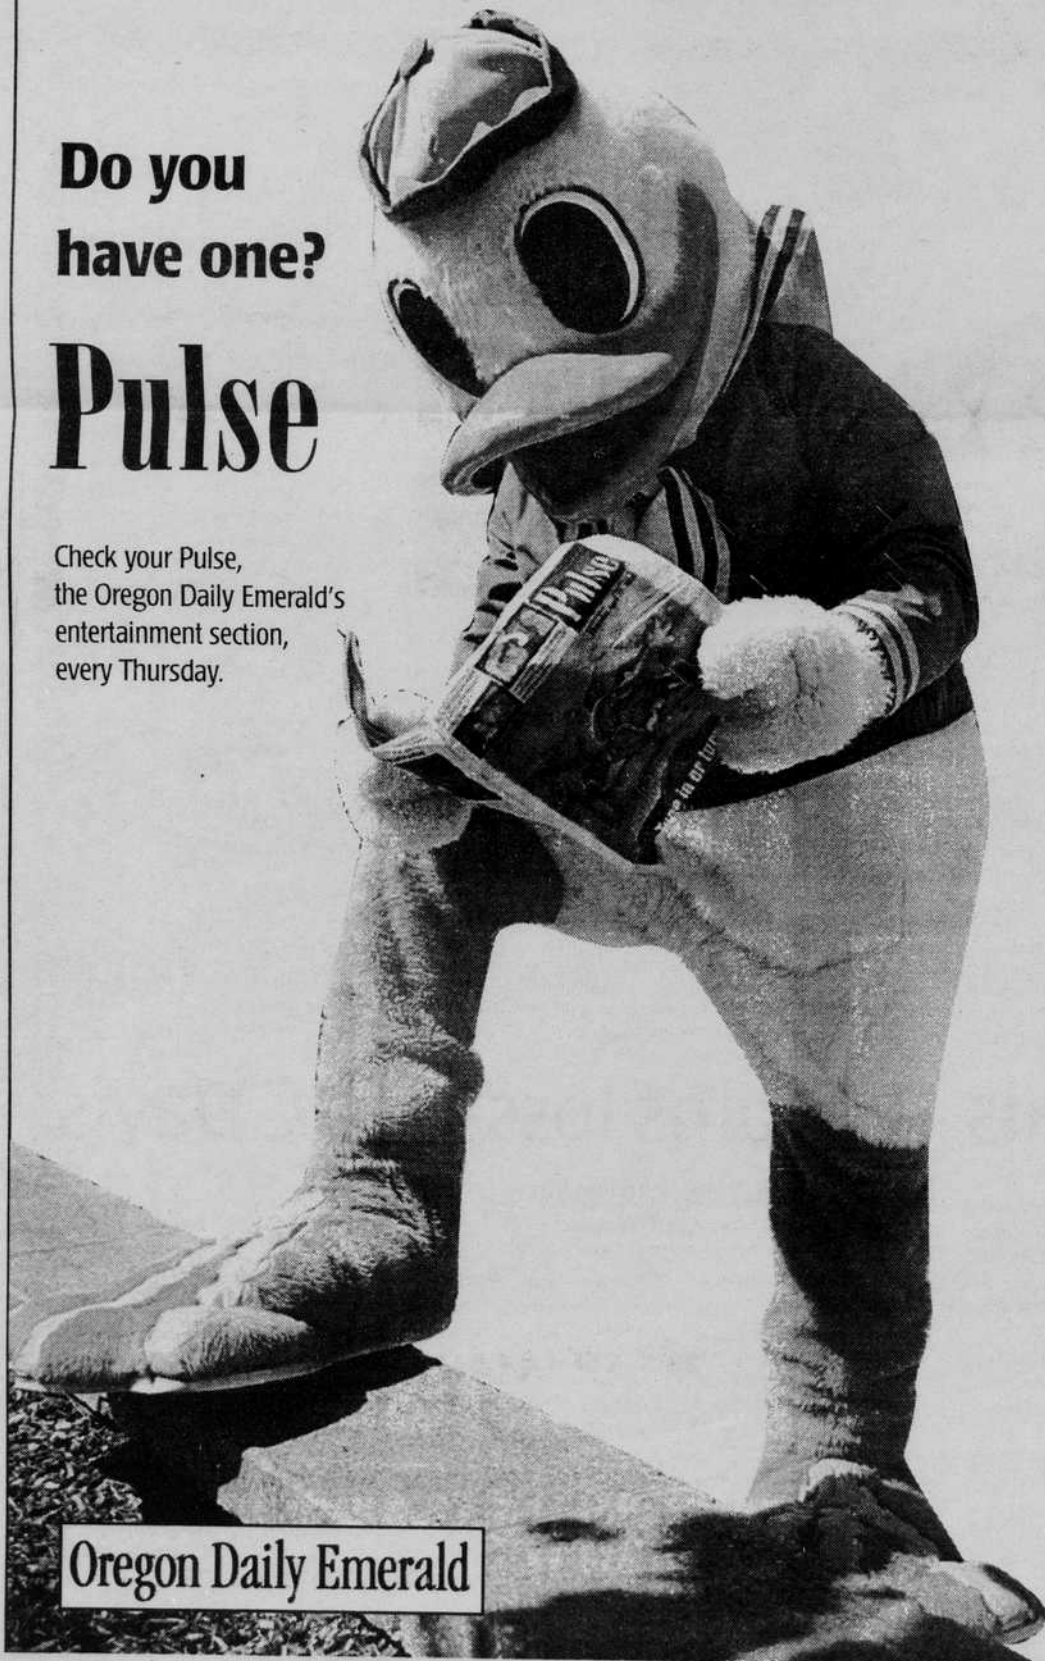

520010

The Oregon Duck has a Pulse

Do you have one?

Pulse

Check your Pulse,
the Oregon Daily Emerald's
entertainment section, every Thursday.

Oregon Daily Emerald

10,000 Daily Circulation

Pick up an Emerald at 120 campus & community locations.

Wrestling

continued from page 7

All-American and defending Pac-10 champion Doug Lee sat out the match due to injury. Oregon forfeited the 184-pound weight class to the Aggies' Burak Pekin.

Newcomers Sean Williams and Luke Larwin were successful in their collegiate debuts. Williams, a junior transfer from North Idaho College, scored a 17-9 major decision against Tommy Schurkamp at 125 pounds to give the Ducks an early 4-0 lead.

"Shaun wrestled extremely well," Kearney said. "He went out and scored eight takedowns and showed signs of what he's going to be capable of."

Larwin, a freshman from Bend, also won by decision, outscoring the Aggies' Jeremiah Jarvis.

Sophomores Brian Watson (133) and Casey Hunt (141), and juniors Tony Overstake (149) and Eugene Harris (157) all won by decision to pad Oregon's lead.

UC Davis earned its only victory at 165 pounds. The Aggies' Adrian Garcia defeated junior Leif Williams, 6-2. Williams was wrestling up one weight class from 157 pounds.

"We need to open up and be more opportunistic, but that will come as the season goes along," Kearney said.

The Ducks return to the Medford area this weekend for the Southern Oregon Open, a four-team individual tournament in Ashland, Ore.

Cross country

continued from page 7

top-20 runner the whole race and had a strong finish."

Sophomore Eri MacDonald and senior Rhiannon Glenn rounded out the Ducks' scorers at 45th and 46th place respectively (21:53 and 21:55).

"We're certainly going to get an at-large berth," Heinonen said. "I'm not worried about the NCAA committee decision on Monday. I'm really proud of our team to jump from seventh at the Pac-10 to finish fourth in the region."

The Ducks trailed only No. 2 Stanford, No. 4 Arizona State and No. 7 Arizona in the standings. Oregon scored a major upset by edging No. 9 Washington by one point. Washington State and UCLA, teams that Heinonen believed the Ducks would need to beat for an NCAA berth, finished a distant seventh and eighth, respectively.

The tenth-ranked Oregon men's team matched the women's fourth-place finish, also assuring themselves of an NCAA berth.

Sophomore Jason Hartmann turned in his second-straight runner-up performance, trailing Stanford's Jonathon Riley by only two seconds and leading Arizona's Tom Pridinville by less than a second. Hartmann ran a 30:42 through the 10,000-meter course.

Senior Michael Kasahun put in his best performance in a Duck uniform, trailing the leaders by only three seconds with his fourth-place finish in a time of 30:45.

Oregon trailed No. 2 Stanford, No. 12 Arizona and Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo in the team standings.

Junior Adam Bergquist was the next Duck to the finish line, finishing 34th in a time of 31:47 in his first Regional meet for the Ducks. Red-shirt freshman John Lucas was not far behind, placing 38th in 31:53. Oregon's usual fifth runner, freshman Brett Holts, was off his mark Saturday, finishing 74th in 32:56.

Senior Lincoln Nehring filled the void at the No. 5 spot, placing 45th in a time of 32:10. Freshman Noel

"I'm really proud of our team for battling because it's been a rough season. Once again, the team ran well at the end of the season when it was important."

Tom Heinonen
Oregon women's head coach

Paulson ran well in his first Regional meet, placing 60th in a time of 32:30.

Oregon receives official notice today if it has received one of the respective at-large NCAA berths. An NCAA selection committee takes the top two teams from each of the nine regions, plus an additional 13 at-large teams.

LOUIE'S VILLAGE
Authentic Chinese Cuisine
RESTAURANT & LOUNGE
947 Franklin Blvd.
343-4480

THE ARTIST EXPERIENCE

An art course open to all UO students!

18 resident Art faculty will speak about their work representing the areas of fibers, photo, sculpture, printmaking, ceramics, metals & jewelry, painting and multimedia design!

Winter Term
CRN 25587

3 Credits
U/H 11:00-12:20

020310