

Burton • Santa Cruz
• Ride • Rossignol •
Salomon • K2

YOUR SNOWBOARDING
HEADQUARTERS

Berg's Snowboard Shop

13th & Lawrence • Eugene • 683-1300 • www.bergsskishop.com

NOVEMBER SPECIAL

Delica Beads
25% Off

Japanese Delica beads are extremely uniform in shape & size—ideal for amulet bags, peyote stitching and loomwork.

Harlequin
Beads & Jewelry

10% Off with Student I.D.
1016 Willamette ♦ 683-5903

Advertise in the ODE
Classifieds 346-4343!

Oregon falls again to Cal

■ The volleyball squad ends the Pac-10 season with a 3-0 loss in Berkeley

By Adam Jude
Oregon Daily Emerald

A strong competitive attitude is all first-year head coach Carl Ferreira has demanded of his volleyball team this season. For most of the year, his demands have been met.

In the Ducks' final Pacific-10 Conference match of 2000, however, the winning mentality was nowhere to be found, as the Ducks (10-17 overall, 2-16 Pac-10) fell 3-0 to the California Bears (11-15, 6-12).

"We lacked discipline," junior hitter Monique Tobbagi said. "It took us two games to get our competitive attitude and you can't do that on the road."

A .134 attack percentage helped the Ducks to defeat, as the Bears hit .388 and outkilled Oregon 52-31. The Ducks, who have had some trouble stopping opponents at the net, outblocked Cal 7-4.

In game one, Cal used two huge runs to overpower Oregon. After the Ducks put their only two points on the board at 5-2, the Bears dropped 10 consecutive points to take the first game 15-2.

Game two was more of the same. Cal took a quick 6-0 lead, and used another 6-0 run to take a 12-3 lead. Three straight points by the Ducks were not enough as they fell 15-6 in game two.

"We just flat out didn't play competitive in games one and two," Ferreira said.

Another run put the Bears up 7-1 in game three, but Oregon came within two on kills by Tobbagi and sophomore Sydney Chute. A Cal win was inevitable, though, as the Bears finished with a 15-9 victory.

In her final conference match, senior Halie Mazza aided the Ducks with 10 kills and a .222 attack percentage. Tobbagi also finished with 10 kills and a .269 average.

LOUIE'S VILLAGE

Authentic Chinese Cuisine
RESTAURANT & LOUNGE
947 Franklin Blvd.

343-4480

Wrestlers rumble in Ashland

■ Four Ducks capture top finishes at the annual Southern Oregon Open

By Robbie McCallum
Oregon Daily Emerald

It's a shame that the Southern Oregon Open wrestling tournament disregards team scores. If it didn't, the Oregon wrestling team would have placed quite well.

The Ducks came home from Ashland with four individual champions, a runner-up and two other placers in the 32-man, 10-bracket tournament.

Only 11th-ranked Boise State placed more wrestlers in the top-six spots. Overall, Oregon was more dominant than any other team in the 17-team field.

"Everyone across the board is making improvements," Oregon

head coach Chuck Kearney said. "We wrestled up to a higher level and wrestled with more intensity."

Senior Chael Sonnen stormed through the 197-pound bracket, earning three pins and a major decision en route to the championship match. Sonnen earned a hard-fought 5-3 decision over Boise State's eighth-ranked Rusty Cook for the trophy.

Sophomore Shaun Williams was impressive in only his second outing as a Duck. The junior college transfer picked up five victories at 125 pounds to finish first. Williams defeated Pacific-10 conference rivals Clint Sieminski of Oregon State 13-4 and Boise State's Ben Vombaur 6-5 to place first. Williams is 6-0 on the season after transferring from North Idaho College.

The Ducks were strong in the 133 pound class, with sophomores Brian Watson placing first and Jason Harless tied for fifth. Watson beat all four of his opponents by decision, including Boise State's Charlie Griggs in the championship match.

Sophomore Tony Overstake defended his No. 1 seeding at 149 pounds with a first-place finish. Overstake is 6-0 on the season.

Sophomore Casey Hunt and freshman Branson Phillips went 2-3 at 141 pounds. The Open was Phillips' first competition of the season, and Oregon's first tournament of the season.

The Ducks will have a short Thanksgiving break this weekend. On Sunday, Oregon hosts Pac-10 rival Stanford in the home opener. Both teams have 1-0 season records.

Auto Pros Inc.
LOCALLY OWNED

LUBE, OIL, FILTER

- Chassis Lube • New Oil Filter • Up to 5 Qts.
- 10W-30 Kendall Oil • Clean Front Window
- Vacuum Front Floor Boards

No Appointment necessary
Most light cars & trucks

$15.99

Kendall MOTOR OIL
FOUR IN THE PROTECTION

3/4 or 1-ton & Extra Cab Trucks
Additional

DOWNTOWN
1320 Willamette
485-2356
*2975 West 11th
344-0007

OPEN Sundays
*11-4

Distinguish Yourself

BE HEARD!

Step up to Peer Health Ed

Tuesday and Thursday, 9:30-10:50
Winter Term ELTA 407

- Engage Yourself in this Intimate Roundtable Setting.
- Explore Topics that Actually Matter (Sex, Drugs, Food.)

Mind

Body

Spirit

Make it Happen!

CONTACT Annie Dochnahl for more about this innovative program: 346-2843 or Dochnahl@oregon.uoregon.edu or SURF <http://healthed.uoregon.edu>