The coach was pleased with the efforts of freshmen guards Luke Jackson and Luke Ridnour. Jackson led all Ducks in scoring with 12 points, while Ridnour followed closely with 11.

The freshmen almost single-handedly brought the Ducks back into the game after Cal's big run.

“The two young guys did a good job of keeping their energy up.”

Ernie Kent
Men's head coach

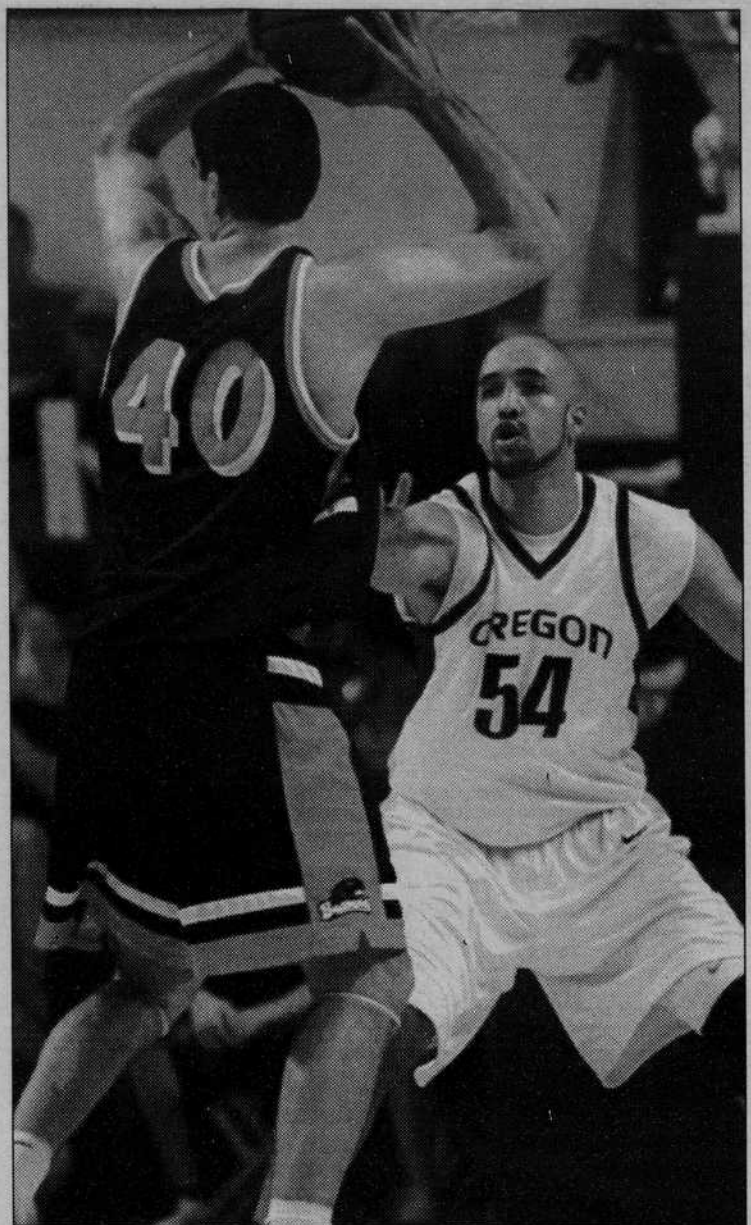

With 10:21 on the clock in the second half, Ridnour hit back-to-back NBA-range three-pointers to bring the Ducks within 15 points. After exchanging baskets, Jackson hit a long three to cut the lead to 12, but Cal's Legans answered with a trey and the Ducks never got closer.

"The two young guys did a good job of keeping their energy up," Kent said.

Ultimately, Kent said, the Ducks' loss came down to their poor shooting. Oregon's 32 percent field goal percentage was their lowest total of the season.

"The poor shooting had a little to do with the crowd; it had a little to do with rushing our shots," Kent said. "But we just weren't knocking down shots we normally knock down."

The Ducks now face the unenviable task of bouncing back against the top-ranked Cardinal.

Senior center Flo Hartenstein (54) was one of two Oregon big men to foul out in their frustrating loss to Cal. Hartenstein will be needed in Saturday's battle with Stanford.
