

UO hockey drops two on the road

■ Oregon sets a school record with more than 200 penalty minutes against Weber State

The Oregon club sports hockey team returned from a Utah road trip with deflated morals and two slapping losses in its bags.

Last Friday's highly physical and, at times, brawl-filled game against Weber State netted a 5-1 loss for the Ducks.

Add fatigue, repeat Friday's performance and double the score: Saturday's game left Oregon with a 10-2 loss against Utah. "They were two different games," Oregon captain Tyler Shaffar said.

On Friday, Weber State had more shots and more opportunities than the Ducks, and were also faster and deeper. As the game went on, the scuffles and scrimmages produced a brutal game, netting more than 200 minutes of penalties — a new Oregon penalty record.

On a brighter note, Josh Hardin blocked more than 40 shots and posted Oregon's strongest performance this weekend.

"He's the only reason we were in the game," Shaffar said.

Oregon scored first Saturday on a power play and when Oregon strikes first it usually wins.

But this was different. The Utes made it 1-1 by the end of the first period. After the second period, the Ducks were down 6-1.

Oregon pulled Hardin to let Joe Fagliano, who is ranked No. 3 in the nation, tend the goal. Even after letting in four to end the game for a score of 10-2, Fagliano is still in the top-10.

With such a difficult schedule looming ahead of it, Oregon could easily just throw in the towel.

"Nobody's giving up," Shaffar said. "People are still excited about practice."

Oregon plays on home ice this weekend against USC, ranked No. 4 in the West. It then faces rival Washington in early Feb., which leads into the PAC-8 Championships at home Feb. 16-19.

"Bottom line, the number one goal is to win the PAC-8 in Eugene," Shaffar said. "We need to focus and re-tune."

One of Sonnen's training partners was Randy Couture, the Ultimate Fighting Champion of the world.

"Battling with guys like that every day takes a lot of fear out of your mind," he said. "I don't get scared of much anymore. I had to butt heads with him twice a day for 18 months."

Last summer at the U.S. Olympic Trials in Dallas, Sonnen won four matches to put himself in contention for an Olympic bid.

"I'd beaten all of the guys in the tournament before and they'd beaten me as well," Sonnen said. "I knew it wasn't a shoe-in by any means. But I was put in really good position."

In the 187.25 kilogram semifinal match, Sonnen faced Ethan Bosch for a spot in the championship match. After two minutes and 22 seconds of back-and-forth take-downs, throws and exposures, Bosch wound up the victor by fall.

"It was real disappointing," Sonnen said. "It's a pretty big deal and you want to win. It was close, but it wasn't heartbreaking."

Now, Sonnen is back with the Oregon team and is a big reason why the Ducks are ranked No. 12 in the nation with a 7-3 dual match record.

"Chael is in a weight class where he's as good as anyone," Oregon head coach Chuck Kearney said. "He's very technically sound and is a great athlete who moves well. He's big enough and better now than ever."

"Chael's one of those kind of guys who loves to pin all the time," former Oregon coach Ron Finley said back in 1998. "He's extremely talented and has so many different moves in his arsenal to throw guys and pin them down."

Sonnen is on a tear this season, with a 22-4 overall record and a team-high 13 pins. He has already secured a spot in the school record book in career victories, winning percentage and career and single season pins. Sonnen needs only eight more pins this season to surpass Don Brown for the record.

Ranked seventh in the Amateur Wrestling News poll, he's scored upsets over No. 5 Rusty Cook of Boise State, No. 3 Zach Thompson of Iowa State and No. 13 Zach Britenbush of North Carolina State.

But don't tell that to Sonnen.

"The goal is just to win," he said. "I have absolutely no interest in anything else, polls, team scoring, nothing. I'm there to win the 197-pound match. I try to not come up with too much of a plan. Bruce Lee said 'Not having a way is a way.'"

The closest thing Sonnen has for a goal is winning the NCAA Championships at 197 pounds.

Beyond that, Sonnen doesn't have many plans besides wrestling.

"I would like to get in to Ultimate Fighting just for the fact that it's the big one in mixed martial arts," Sonnen said. "I'm ready for the 2004 [Olympics] but I'm also looking forward to this year's World Championships."

Wherever he ends up, his goal will be the same. Just to win.

Basketball

The Huskies are led by senior forward Will Perkins, who is one of only four players to be ranked in the top-10 in the league in scoring and rebounding. Senior forward Thalo Green, the 1996 Oregon prep player of the year while at South Salem High, will return to Eugene after scoring a then-career high 16 points against the Ducks last season.

"We just had two losses so we gotta have this one," Oregon junior guard Freddie Jones said. "They have good players all around the floor, but we just have to attack them and be confident."

One area where the Huskies might cause the Ducks problems is with their perimeter defense. Oregon is a team that frequently shoots from beyond the arc, and Washington has held its opponents to only 30.2 percent from three-point range.

"They run a really good motion scheme and play really good position defense," Kent said. "We've just got to be on our toes and have our energy up and really get rolling again."

Note: Saturday's home game against Washington State has been changed to 3 p.m. because of television.

Horoscope by Linda C. Black

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Jan. 18). Some excellent helpers await your orders. Others will push you out front in January. Don't let them stick you with the bills in February. Social life interferes with romance in May. Work requires extra reading in July. Don't complain, you'll become more valuable. Extend your influence in September. Save part of November for a scheme your gang's concocted. Don't tell all in December.

To get the advantage, check the day's rating: 10 is the easiest day, 0 the most challenging.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Today is a 5 — Pay the bills first, being careful how you allocate your resources. Later, watch for the opportunity to travel with friends. You get to go, as soon as you can find the money.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Today is a 7 — A difference of opinion leads to a new idea. Each person provides a piece of the puzzle. Keep looking for a solution, and treat each suggestion with respect.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21) — Today is a 4 — The workload is intense and you have to learn quickly, but you may not be doing things right. Trust your leader.

CANCER (June 22-July 22) — Today is an 8 — Intuition is good, especially regarding romance. The work you're doing may bring an outcome you hadn't anticipated. Be prepared to adapt quickly.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Today is a 5 — Take it slow. There are several complications, but you can deal with them. Your life should become easier in the next few days. Just take it one step at a time, and you'll do fine.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Today is an 8 — Focus your attention this morning and set priorities. Don't waste time on something you can put off until tomorrow, or indefinitely. Use your own judgment to scratch things off your list.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) — Today is a 5 — If you're confused or frustrated, just be patient. Focus on the job at hand. The better you do even a simple task, the better you'll feel about yourself. Start small and work up.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) — Today is an 8 — You have the advantage to win the argument. Act quickly when the time is right. Your intuition should be good. Earlier looks better, if you're after financial gain.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) — Today is a 6 — All sorts of things are going on behind the scenes in the morning. Gather more information, and give away as little as possible. Study the game a little longer before becoming an aggressive player. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Today is an 8 — New information that comes late in the day could make a big difference. Ask the clerk if anything's going on sale soon before you buy, for example. You can be in the right place at the right time.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) — Today is a 5 — Wonderful things are coming, but not quite yet. Continue to make plans, using feedback from your team. Somebody else's brilliant idea could push you over the top. Accept the boost with charm and grace.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) — Today is a 7 — You've done a lot of research, study and practice. An older person is feeding you the right lines, too. A good deed you've done in the past gives you an advantage. You're headed in the right direction.
