A good education. Every kid in this country is entitled to one. Teach For America is working to make sure every one of them gets the kind of education they deserve. And the kind of future that comes with it. Each year we field around one thousand of the country's top recent college graduates in the urban and rural public schools where they are needed most. Teachers earn a full salary. No previous education coursework is required. Just the dedication to take two years of your life to change a few kids' lives forever. Not to mention your own. To apply, call
