

Ravens' defense keys Super Bowl win

By Dave Goldberg
Associated Press

TAMPA, Fla. — The Baltimore Ravens blustered and bragged and brazenly described how their defense would smother the New York Giants.

Then they went out and did it. Led by Ray Lewis, who added the MVP prize to his defensive player of the year award, the Ravens beat the New York Giants 34-7 on Sunday to win their first Super Bowl.

The defense that set an NFL record for fewest points allowed in a 16-game regular season intercepted four Kerry Collins passes and held New York to 149 yards of offense.

"If you put this in a storybook, nobody would believe it," said Ray Lewis, who was arrested last year on murder charges in the stabbing deaths of two men at a Super Bowl party in Atlanta. He subsequently pleaded guilty to a misdemeanor charge of obstructing justice.

"We didn't just break records, we shattered them," Lewis said. "We dominated literally. This is what you work your whole life for. You come from childhood, dreaming whatever you want it to be, but now, at 25, to be a world champion, what else can I dream of?"

Duane Starks returned an interception 49 yards for a touchdown, the first of three TDs on three plays late in the third quarter. The other two were back-to-back kickoff returns for scores by Ron Dixon of New York and Jermaine Lewis of Baltimore, the first time that's happened in a Super Bowl.

"I feel our defense is the best ever," said offensive tackle Jonathan Ogden, a sentiment echoed by every one of his 52 teammates after the game.

The victory gave 75-year-old Art Modell his first Super Bowl win in 40 years as an owner. He won one NFL title in 35 seasons in Cleveland before moving his franchise to Baltimore in 1996, but he had never been to a Super Bowl, losing two close AFC title games in Cleveland.

So effective was Baltimore's defense that the New York offense never got inside the Ravens 29. Baltimore would have had the first shutout in a Super Bowl if the special teams had not allowed Dixon's 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown.

Men's Track and Field

Oregon captured one win and eight other top-three finishes at the UNI Invitational Saturday in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Junior All-American Santiago Lorenzo was Oregon's sole victor, beating the field in the seven-event men's heptathlon with a score of 5,470 points.

Men's

ahead for good.

Oregon led at halftime mostly because of its efforts from the free-throw line in the first half. The Ducks hit 17 of 19 free throws in the half, scoring more than a third of their points from the charity stripe. Oregon ended the game shooting 29-for-35 from the free-throw line.

In the scoring column, the Ducks were led by Freddie Jones, who had 22 points, and Bryan Bracey, who notched 20 points. Bracey, the Pac-10's leading scorer, sat out for much of the second half because of a calf injury, but came back late in the contest.

The Ducks played both games on their road trip without starting center Julius Hicks, who sprained his ankle before last Thursday's matchup with Southern California.

"No question he could have helped us this weekend," Kent said. "But at the same time, it gave Chris a chance to step in and show us something."

Oregon will now take its 2-5 conference mark into four home games with the Pac-10's best teams. Arizona and Arizona State come to McArthur Court on Thursday and Sunday, respectively, while Stanford and California will be in Eugene the following weekend.

"We are learning some lessons as a team as we go through this first round of games, and hopefully we can come home and make the adjustments we need to make," Kent said.

Oregon's game with Arizona will tip off at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Horoscope by Linda C. Black

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Jan. 29). Your energy level's high this year, so use it! You're extra smart, so don't hold back. An older person's got you blocked in February, but not for long. By March you could have what you need. Study furiously in April to do what you promised. Relax in May and avoid the spotlight. In June cuddle in private at home. Cautiously show off new talents in July. Overexuberance can lead to accidents. By August you should have your act together. In October you can take it on the road. Step up to the applause in November. Share secrets with your friends in December.

To get the advantage, check the day's rating: 10 is the easiest day, 0 the most challenging.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Today is an 8 — Start off with an important meeting. Make promises to your team and get their promises in return. After that's done, you'll be free to take off on an adventure. Don't go too fast or too far, however. And, pay attention.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Today is a 6 — Interesting conversations are going on behind locked doors. Overhearing what they're saying shouldn't be hard. Some of the people may be hollering at each other. You're not snooping, really, you're just gathering information.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21) — Today is a 7 — A group outing could be fascinating. Looks like they're moving quickly, though. You want to stop and read all the signs. They're just interested in the hike. Don't worry. You can get a book on the topic at the library later.

CANCER (June 22-July 22) — Today is a 5 — The people at the top of the food chain will be even more aggressive than usual. You find that rather annoying. Why should you be put out because somebody else didn't manage their time properly? Probably because that's your job.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Today is a 6 — Everybody wants to order you around. Your partner has figured everything out and has no room for your input. A friend is also being bossy. Unfortunately, this will go on at least another day. Keep your lip zipped.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Today is a 5 — The work is fast, furious and technically demanding. Luckily, you have an excellent memory. Financial wheeling and dealing is going on. You may not see much more in your pocket now, but keep playing hardball.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) — Today is a 10 — Are you thinking about getting married? Others may think you recently came up with the idea. Truth is, you and your sweetheart have been talking about this for ages. If you don't have a sweetheart, it's a good day for new beginnings, too.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) — Today is a 5 — If you don't speak up about something that's bothering you, it'll just get worse. It's not your nature to complain. Well, at least not until things have built to an intolerable level. Don't let that happen this time.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) — Today is a 9 — A lively discussion with a passionate person could lead you to a whole new understanding. What you may not have put into words is the reason for all this trouble. What are you trying to accomplish? Make something up. Knowing will make your life easier.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Today is a 5 — You've been doing the work, but the money's slipping through your fingers. Do you need a better accounting system? Don't hire somebody to help; figure it out yourself. That will be time well spent.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) — Today is an 8 — You like to stay in control. You do that by having all the answers, doing the extra research and squeezing time out of your busy schedule to study. That's what you should do now. You need to know about something before tomorrow.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) — Today is a 5 — A controversy is raging, and you're right in the middle. You might not be keeping track of all the facts very well, but you can figure out one thing. You know what's best for you. So, do that. Stop worrying about them. They'll think of something.
